Pursuant to an order from the Worshipful Court of Henry County, January term 1823

Received Dec. 29th 1823

Directed to William Holt, John Matthews, Alexander Johnson, Wilson Henderson and Samuel King, directing them or a majority, of them to divide the lands of George Davidson Dec^d. among the several heirs and distributees, petitioning for such division, according to and in conformity, with the petition on which said order was grounded; and the aforesaid John Matthews, Alexander Johnson, Wilson Henderson and Samuel King having proceeded, according to and in conformity, with the said Petition and Order to divide and mark out a certain tract of land, in the County aforesaid, on the head of fountain Creek, purchased by the aforesaid George Davidson Dec^d. in his life time from Jacob Montgomery, & conveyed by deed of said Jacob Montgomery, to the heirs of the aforesaid George Davidson Dec^d. since his, the said Davidson's death, said tract containing two hundred and four acres, and bounded as follows; Beginning at at a Sugar tree and running South Eighty poles to a hickory, and Elm, thence West one hundred and thirty poles to a dead Mulberry, thence North Sixty and poles to two beeches, thence West one hundred and forty seven poles to a black oak, thence North one hundred and six poles to two sugar trees and a red oak stump, thence East one hundred and eight and one half poles to a sugar tree at the end of a lane, thence North thirty three poles to a dead white oak in Wilson Henderson's line, thence South 50 Degrees East, two hundred & eight poles to the Beginning, which boundary line will more plainly appear from inspection of this plat, in this page, it appearing to us that the aforesaid George Davidson Dec^d at the time of his death was not seized or possessed of any other lands or tenements whereof to makes distribution, we propose to lot off and divide the aforesaid two hundred and four acres of land, regarding quality and natural advantages, agreeable to the aforesaid petition and Oren, and not taking into estimation houses, or other official improvements as petitioners for aforesaid agreeable to the ratio of shares set forth in said petition and Oren aforesaid, to the best of our skill and judgment, as follows;

First, for Rosanna Davidson, widow of the aforesaid George Davidson Dec^d. the lot marked on the above plat N° 1 R.D. Beginning at a Sugar tree, the Northeast corner of the tract, and running South Sixty poles and a half pole to a small Dogwood and Sugar tree in the East boundary of the tract, thence West forty four poles to an Elm White Oak and beech, thence North, passing through the middle of a Spring, reaching out of the bottom of a branch, sixty poles & an half pole to a beech and hickory near said Spring, including in said lot N° 1, the one half of the privilege of said Spring, thence South Seventy Degrees West, fourteen poles to a Stake near a Station Shop, thence North fifty four Degrees West, fifty nine poles to a Stake in a pole and near a branch, thence North thirty six Degrees East, thirty eight poles to a Stake, in the line dividing the tract from the lands of Nelson Henderson, thence South fifty four Degrees East with said line to the Beginning, and contains within said boundary, lines of lot N° 1, (being by us considered, in value one tenth and seven eighths of one tenth of the whole tract, considering only natural advantages) thirty six acres & 1/10 of an acre including the dwelling house & other out houses, where the aforesaid Rosanna Davidson now resides, to her the aforesaid Rosanna Davidson, the aforesaid lot N° 1 with its appurtenances, agreeable to and in conformity with the petition and Oren aforesaid, to her and her heirs, heirs second, To Samuel J. Rogers and his wife, Sarah, one share, by right of his wife Sarah, aforesaid, and two other shares by right of purchase from George Davidson Dec^d and John C. Davidson, making together in value three tenths of the whole tract, that lot in the above plat marked N° 2, S.T.R. boundary as follows; Beginning at a hickory and Sugar tree, near the Spring, a corner of lot N° 1 and running with a line of said lot, South Seventy Degrees West, fourteen poles to a Stake, near a Station Shop, corner of lot N° 1, thence North fifty four Degrees West, with a line of lot N° 1, seventeen poles to a Stake in said line, in a lane, thence with the land, South thirty seven Degrees & three fourths of a Degree West, twenty four poles to another Stake in the end of the land, thence West to two beeches, a corner of the tract, thence South with a west boundary of the tract, sixty one poles to a dead Mulberry, a South west corner of the tract, thence East with the South boundary of the tract, one hundred and thirty poles to a hickory, and Elm, South East corner of the tract, thence North with the East boundary, eighteen and a half poles to a Dogwood and Sugar tree, a corner of lot N° 1, thence with a line of lot N° 1 forty four poles to an Elm, White Oak and beech corner of N° 1, thence North sixty poles & one half pole with a line of N° 1 and passing through and taking the other moiety of the Spring to the Beginning, and contains by calculation forty two acres & one half acre & being by us estimated, as aforesaid, in value disregarding houses &c. three tenths of the whole tract, the said Samuel J. Rogers & his wife, having by petition as aforesaid, relinquished to Rosanna Davidson, widow, as aforesaid, the three tenths of the share of James L. Davidson Dec^d in consequence of her the said widow, by petition as aforesaid, having relinquished her right of Dower Third, for Jane Davidson, widow Daughter of the aforesaid George Davidson Dec^d the lot represented in the above plat N° 3, J.D. estimated by us to be in value, one tenth of the whole tract, and one ninth of one tenth (She petitioning by her guardian James C King) who had no right legally to relinquish to Annina Davidson her the said Jane Davidson's part of her deceased Brother's Share, said lot N^o 3 bounded, as follows; Beginning at a stake in a field near a branch corner to lot N^o 1 and running South thirty six Degrees west to a stake, with sugar tree and history, pointed thirty two poles, thence North sixty Degrees west, twenty seven and one half poles to a sugar tree, thence South thirty six Degrees west to a stake, and back pointer, thence North sixty Degrees west, fifteen poles to an Elm, thence South thirty six Degrees west to a small Dogwood in the south boundary of the tract, thence East with said line to two beeches, same corner with a line of N^o 2, to a stake in the end of a lane, corner of N^o 2, thence with a line of N^o 2 along the land, North thirty seven and three fourths of a degree East, to a stake a corner of N^o 2 in the line of lot N^o 1 thence with that line to the Beginning, & contains according to Calculations twenty acres & $\frac{2}{3}$ of an acre.

 Fourth, for the heirs of Ephraim J. Davidson Dec^d the lot represented on the above plat N^o 4, G.F.D. said lot being by us estimated at one tenth of the whole tract and one ninth of one tenth, regardless of artificial improvements, said lot N^o 4 bounded as follows; Beginning at a stake four poles Northeast of the Southwest stake, corner of lot N^o 1 and running North fifty four Degrees west fifty five poles to a stake, thence South thirty six Degrees west, eighty poles to a large elm, with some smaller branches from the same root, thence South sixty Degrees East thirteen and one fourth poles to a sugar tree in the line of lot N^o 3, thence North thirty six Degrees East, with said line twenty one poles and a half to an Elm, corner of N^o 3, thence South sixty Degrees East, fifteen poles to a stake, & back pointer, another corner of N^o 3, thence North thirty six Degrees east, eighteen poles to a sugar tree, thence South sixty Degrees East, twenty seven poles, and a half to a stake, with history and sugar tree pointer corner of N^o 3, thence North thirty six Degrees East with the line of N^o 3 and passing corner stake of N^o 1, to the Beginning, and contains by Calculation twenty acres and $\frac{1}{10}$ of an acre.
 Fifth, for Joseph Nixon & his wife Louisa, John Henderson and his wife Emeline, and James C. King and his wife Isabella, as joint tenants, or tenants in common, they the said Joseph Nixon, John Henderson and James C. King, being on the ground and consenting thereto, that is, that they would keep their parts as petitioned for, as joint tenants, or tenants in common, we in pursuance of said request and permission as aforesaid, estimate and value, the balance of the tract, represented on the above plat N^o 5 L.I.E., D.H. & I.E. joint tenants; to be of value equal to three tenths of the whole tract, (the said Joseph Nixon, John Henderson and James C. King, for himself & their three sons having petitioned that their several one ninth of the share of their Dec^d father, be annexed to the share of Alexan-na Davidson, widow, as aforesaid in consideration of her petitioning that her right of Dower, is thereby relin-quished) said lot N^o 5 bounded as follows; Beginning at a stake in the line between Wilson Henderson and tract herein described, a corner of lot N^o 1 and running North 58 D West, one hundred and four poles to a dead white oak, a north west corner of the tract, thence South thirty three poles to a sugar tree in the end of a lane, a corner of the whole tract, thence west with a north boundary of the survey, one hundred and eight poles & one half to two sugar trees and red oak stump, North west corner of the tract, thence South one hundred and six poles to a black oak, south west corner of the tract, thence East about eighty five poles to a small Dogwood, a corner of lot N^o 5, thence with a line of N^o 3 North thirty six Degrees East, to a sugar tree, a corner of N^o 3 and 4, thence with a line of N^o 4 North sixty Degrees west, thirteen and one fourth poles to a large elm, with smaller branches from the same root, a corner of lot N^o 4, thence North thirty six Degrees East eighty poles to a stake another corner of lot N^o 4, thence with a line of lot N^o 4 South fifty four Degrees East fifty five poles to a stake, a corner of lot N^o 1, and in the line of lot N^o 1, thence with that line of lot N^o 1 North thirty six Degrees East to the Beginning, and is estimated by deduction of all the other lots therefrom, to contain eighty three acres, and $\frac{1}{10}$ of an acre. To the said Joseph Nixon & his wife Louisa, John Henderson and his wife Emeline, and James C. King and his wife Isabella, as joint tenants or ten-ants in common, in and to the aforesaid eighty three acres and $\frac{1}{10}$ of an acre with the appurtenances as represented in the above plat N^o 5 &c. All of which is subtracted.

 And the Commissioners John Matthew, Alexander Johnson, Wilson Henderson and Samuel King as aforesaid, further report and say, that they were five days engaged in making and marking the aforesaid partitions of the before described tract of land, that they sold the surveying among themselves and with no additional allowance therefor, and that one of the Commissioners Alexander Johnson was engaged one additional day, in making out this plat and report, making to him two days hired, and each of the others five days respectively, for which they claim a reasonable compensation. Given under our hands and seals this 25th day of January 1823. We make this report having been sworn to do impartial justice, to the best of our skill and abilities. George Davidson & James L. King sworn Chain carriers, performed two days hired as such.
