John Miller Deceased Will Recorded

I John Miller of the County of McMinn and State of Tennessee do make and publish this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking and making void all former Wills by me at any time heretofore made. And first I direct that my body be decently ~~interred~~ in a manner suitable to my condition in life. And to such worldly estate as it hath pleased God to entrust me with, I dispose of the same as follows. First I direct that all my debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my decease as possible out of any moneys that I may die possessed of or may first come into the hands of my executors from any portion of my estate real or personal. Secondly, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Sarah Miller the full and complete possession of my plantation where I now live with all the appurtenances thereto belonging, and also two Negroes by the name of Hannah and Susan, and five of the best home breeds and six cows and calves of her choice and two yoke of oxen and fifty of the best hogs and what sheep there is on hand and one thousand bushels of corn and all the house hold and kitchen furniture. But I make a condition in this bequest to my wife Sarah Miller that is to say she is to have all heretofore given during her natural life if she should live single but if she should choose to marry then and in that case I order that my plantation and Negroes and all other property be sold at a twelve months credit and to be equally divided between my wife Sarah Miller and her children that is to say Lucius B. Miller Lucretia Miller Wade H. Miller Vernantes Miller Parrish C. Miller Armonia Miller Montenia Miller John H. Miller Dallas H. Miller. But if my wife should not marry, at her death I order that the above named plantation and Negroes and all other property be sold as before directed and equally divided amongst my above named children and I also order that some time in the first of August next that all the balance of my cattle stock and hogs be sold at the twelve months credit. I order that the old horse Billy King be kept on the place as long as he lives, but any other horses that may not be needed is also to be sold & further bequeath out of the money on hand and what money may be got for my surplus stock, all of my children a horse saddle and bridle to be worth one hundred dollars which is to be given to each of them as they become of age that is to say my son Lucius Bonaparte Miller Lucretia Miller Wade H. Miller Vernantes Miller Parrish C. Miller Armonia Miller
