Richard Card Deed Guardian statement

Bar 18th 1846
William D. Copeland and Guardian to Benjamin, Mary and Joseph Card minor heirs of Richard Card's Deed this day came to the office of the County Court Clerk and made statement as required by law said Guardian Reports that the minors have an undivided interest in the lands of Richard Card Deed. And that he has disposed of the rents for 1846 in the following manner (to wit) sold a fifty bushels of corn to George Smith on a six months credit for 20¢ per bushel of 10 00
The balance of the rents consist in a corn wheat & oats which I suppose to be sixty four bushels of corn which is put up for the purpose of selling next spring or summer there is also two common size oat stacks to be sold next summer. And sold a 5 1/4 bushels of wheat to William James for fifty cents per bush on a six months credit
There is left of a hen stack on land

Jonathan Pugh one of the Executors of Jonathan C. Pugh, did come to the office of the County Court clerk and make settlement as required by law. Said Executor is authorized by the will of said Jonathan C. Pugh to settle and pay property of the estate to pay debts, which was done. And said executor reports that the widow intermarried with Solomon Smalling about six years ago and the Smalling took the possession of the land and for the use and benefit of the place he bought himself in a bond to take care of the children and I should think as a provision to that time the widow & children lived on said land owned by Jonathan C. Pugh and no profits was ever realized upon said estate until the year 1846. And the rents and profits for said year amounts to $22 97 1/2

And that he wanted the premises to the highest bidder for 1847 for cash 10 00
 And the balance of the property the widow & children has used and is still on hand. Said Executor further states that besides the amount of money that he has reported the property to have been sold for he had 975 rails made & put up on the farm.
