McNairy county state of Tennessee & Macklin Cross, of county & state aforesaid witnesseth whereas Henry Wilson formerly sheriff & collector of the publick and county taxes for county of McNairy for year 1826 made report to county court of pleas and quarter sessions 1826 that certain tracts of land were listed for taxation for year 1826 aforesaid and that owners have no goods and chattels in said county of which to make said taxes & among other tracts so reported as aforesaid there was one tract of land containing 14 acres in name of Charles Keady lying in county of McNairy 9th District 3rd Range 3rd section and No. of entry 1647 which has been given for taxation & said taxes were not paid and there was no personal property in county belonging to Charles Keady to pay state & county taxes whereupon the county court of McNairy county by the authority of and in presence of the act of assembly in such case made & provided at said term enter up judgment against said tract of land and then order and adjudge that said tract of land as so much it as should be sufficient should be sold as the law denotes to pay taxes costs & charges thereon and upon which judgment and order of sale issued on the 18th day of May 1826 after advertising the same according to law in the Jackson Gazette and that same be exposed to
