Will of James Browder

"Know all men by these presents that of James Browder of the County of Mingo and State of Tennessee being sick and weak in body strong and sound in mind taken into consideration the uncertainty of life even whilst in health and much greater when the body is racked with painful disease I have thought it my duty whilst I have strength and perfect soundness of mind to arrange my worldly concerns so far as is comprised here after in this instrument of writing and wish it to be considered by my heirs and Executors as my last will and testament and here by Request each and every one of them to so regard and if there should be any lack of legal force or expression to take now advantage of it but to bury my meaning out as expressed to the letter finally I wish my Executors or administrators as the case may be who will keep them in good repair and pay the rent punctually and I wish all of said rents to be sold annually which rents from all sources to be loaned out on interest for the benefit of my children Southly & Giv and bequeath to my children Mary Jane, John James, Nancy Angeline and William B. the following slaves in order that they are named to George J. Albert, to John J. Sarah, to Nancy A. George, to William B. Myra as she is commonly called and pay for my wife to have the service and control of said slaves until each of my said children become of age Respectfully or until they get married which if it takes place before that period they are to be considered of age and the slaves given to them accordingly also to give to each when they get married in addition one hundred and fifty dollars worth of property to set them up in housekeeping this property to be taken out of the stock or the increase of the stock on the future fifthly I give and bequeath all the residue of my property of what kind soever it may be Lands tenements notes bonds stock equities accounts or what evidence of debts it may be to my said children Mary J. John J. Nancy A. and William B. to be equally divided amongst them and as any of them be come of age or get married they are to receive the share what is above specified their equal proportion of the interest of any money loaned or of rents or from the stock or from what ever source it may accrue so that it can be accounted yearly and paid to them separate from the amount of the unmannered or minor heirs I hereby appoint and constitute my executor James Caldwell my executor in his absence with my wife Louisa E. Provider Executor to this my last will and as be amended hoping that they will accept of this trust and perform the same as I have no doubt they will Gladly and I wish it to be understood that I do not wish my wife to be accountable for the use of any of the provisions on the place or the grain or crop or of the stock necessary for the support of the family and from now for my bequest or death in the stock only in case of her death or the dissolution of her widowhood is any notice to be taken of it and then only to part in with my other estate and I desire that I wish in now case now want to have this will executed or broken or to have part of my estate particularly my slaves or any parts of them sold under advice of chancery or order of any court in testimony where of I have here unto set my hand and affixed my seal at Brighton New York this thirteenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty seven signed and sealed in the presence of us

 James P. Browder

Whereas it has pleased almighty God in his infinite goodness to continue me here until this date but with my amendment in my bodily health and wishing to confirm my disposition of my property as stated in the above last will and testament and more especially to declare my intention to give and bequeath to my beloved wife Louisa C. Browder every thing as specified situated in my dwelling house as house hold and Kitchen furniture to include every thing as it will stand at my death and whereas my brother Lurue Browder left me by his last will and testament plantation situated in Rome County and three negro slaves after the death of his wife or her marriage the condition of said bequest as more set forth in said will to which reference is given and now to dispose of the bequest of my brother to me I make this bequest or addition to my former will made the twentieth day of April 1849 first after the death of my brother's widow or any circumstances that will give me the rule of said property I wish the said plantation to be offered to my brother Jeptha Browder and my sister Jane Eldridge Nancy Brownson Judy Smith Polly Jackson Elizabeth Worton or which every of them will take it and pay my Executors four thousand five hundred dollars and in default of none of them being willing to pay the same forth then my Executors to put it up at public sale to the best bidder and of the proceeds of said sale in full to give to my said brother and sister as above named or their heirs the sum of two hundred dollars each except my Brownson and to her three hundred dollars and of the negroes in said will as for said I wish my brother Lurue George Brownson to have for use by paying up said plantation for him to my Executors the other two negroes to be sold at public sale to the best bidder the avails of the plantation and negroes after paying the above legacy to be put in to my Estate to be equally divided amongst my heirs as is provided by my aforesaid will and testament and also all monies that may accrue to my Estate from my said brother's will after paying the legacy of seven hundred dollars to his widow here after her death and the half of the slaves that she will have until then and from every sort according to its provisions to be so divided.

In testimony where of I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this the seventeenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty nine I make the above bequest I have inadvertently omitted the name of my sister Channy Edgington and now wish her to be placed in all respects equal with Jane Eldridge in the legacy of two hundred dollars and the off of the plantation as above shown.
