part be divided between my herein named children and that she will not be allowed to live on the place known as my dwelling at the time of my decease - But should she have herself in a virtuous and orderly manner and act as a kind and affectionate ~~husband's~~ mother. I will and direct that she may live at or in the dwelling house occupied by me at the time of my death and take care of the children till the age of their majority. It is also my desire as the children come to their years of maturity (one by one) that they get each their share or part of the household furniture, stock and whatever money comes to their part, as to the Land I leave that to my Executors to manage and divide as they think best for the good of my above named children - The surplus of stock which may not be necessary for the comfort of my family and farm, at the present time, I direct that to be sold, and the proceeds therefrom applied to the wants of the family as such wants shall arise; and if possible so to do I direct that a portion of the sd proceeds be applied to the Education of my children, and if not enough to pay for Educating them respectively I direct that the children especially the boys be sent to school as soon as possible and made good scholars, and the expenses of the same be paid out of the money during my estate. It is my will and desire that my executor to be hereafter named shall secure the sure payment of such notes and money as may be due my estate; I further direct that my dwelling house stand and continue as a home for my children after they shall come to their majority or until they may be otherwise provided for

But in case the marry or ^{or} otherwise provided for before their mother's death I will she gets the house and a tenth part of my estate as long as she lives; Provide as herein before expressed. If she doth not marry, and if she doth marry that she be allowed one dollar and the remainder of her part or share to be divided between the children, and that she must leave the house and farm known as mine at the time of my decease. And in conclusion I appoint Dr Enock Collins, Randolph Gibson & William Warr, to be my ^{my} lawful executors of this my will and Testament, and that they will suffer no one, to use or usurp any unlawful authority over my family or witnesses. Probate of Alexander McCall's Last Will & Testament
State of Tennessee - County of Davidson October Term Magistrate's Court - 1856 When there was a will purporting to be the last will and testament of Alexander McCall deceased presented in open court for probate and the Court being satisfied from the proof that it is the last will and testament of the said Alexander McCall deceased it is therefore considered by the Court that the said last will and testament be admitted to record Whereupon came on each side of said will two of the subscribing witnesses who after being duly qualified according to Law do say that they signed and said will at the request and in the presence of the testator and that he seemed to be of sane mind and disposing memory at the time of said request to sign the same Witness A. H. Homan
