Will of John McCallen Deed

I John McCallen do make and publish this as my last will and Testament hereby revoking, and making void all other wills by me at any time made.

1st I direct that my funeral expences, and all my debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of my money, that I may die prepared if or may feel come into the hands of my Executor.

2nd Secondly: I wish to state the condition of my property when I purchased my lands, I began in a condition that I could not hold said lands in my own name, therefore I gave my son James B. McCallen property to pay for said land, and the deed was taken in his name, though the land was intended for me, and was mine the deed only being taken in his name, because I could not keep it at that time in my own, and he got hold of a deed to my lands as a portion of them, I do not now distinctly recollect which I have paid taxes in and lived from the time of purchase and hold them in peaceable possession from that date to the present.

3rd Thirdly: I give, and bequeath, firstly I give to my wife Emily McCallen four acres of land commencing at the North West corner of the creek thence up the creek with a marked line to a point opposite the lower corner of the upper corn crib, thence to a point East which may be established as a point, from which to run the north, and South line, so as to include the supposed four acres; and also the lower crib, the barn, and the Horse house the East, and West line to the line between this land, and the tract owned by Bryan; The Original line, I also bequeath to her all my personal property, except debts due me, and one Negro Boy.

If he should be of value Secondly I give and bequeath to my wife Isabella Miller Andrew J. McCallen's share, Betty Ann Peake, Mary, Margaret, Harmer, William J. Harmer, James B. McCallen, Elizabeth McCallen, John J. McCallen, and Seciton H. McCallen, three hundred, and seventy three acres, and nineteen poles of land, also debts due me, and one Negro Boy named Robert, of said Negro should be of value, to be divided amongst them equally, or the proceeds of the same, after all my debts are paid; Lastly I do hereby nominate, and appoint Elijah McCallen, and John C. McCallen, my Executors; do witness, whereof I do this my Will, set my hand, and seal, this 25th day of August 1864.

John McCallen (seal)

Signed, sealed, and published in our presence, and we subscribed our names hereto in the presence of the Testator, this 28th day of August 1864.

Jacob Womack,
John Womack.

I John Chattem, late of the County of Rhea, State of Tennessee, having hereunto first to wit on the 4th day of May 1854, made, executed, and published my last will, and Testament, bequeathing my son John Chattem in trust for the use and support of my son Peper Chattem, one third of one child's part of my estate according to the distribution made by me amongst my devisees in said will, and to the children of said Peper Chattem, the other two thirds of said share or child's part, as provided for in my said will, and whereas some cause not satisfactory known, or accounted for to me, my said son Peper Chattem has been induced to harp, me with an unjust lawsuit as I believe, and I being desirous to make such distribution, and division of my estate amongst my devisees mentioned in my said last will, and Testament, as to me at least appears equitable and right, do hereby make, and declare this as a codicil to my aforesaid last will, and Testament to wit, first it is my will, and desire, and I hereby direct that in the event my said son Peper Chattem should institute this said suit with effect against me, which said suit is now pending in the chancery court at Decatur, Meigs County, Tennessee, and should recover any sum of money of me, or my estate in and by said suit, that the devise by me made in my aforesaid will to the said John Chattem in trust for the use, and support of the said Peper Chattem be charged, payment of the sum so recovered, by him in said suit, and all my costs, and expenses in defending said suit, and that the same be deducted from the bequest, to me made in said will for the said Peper Chattem, and county taxes amongst my other devisees in said will, and should it be necessary, I hereby direct, and desire, in so doing an lawsuit, and any other suit, against me then, I will and direct that the balance of said bequest be paid, recovered in said suit, and my costs, and expenses in the defense of the same be deducted from the provisions by me made in said will to the share of the said Peper Chattem, and equally divided amongst the other three devisees named in said will, and I further direct that in the event the said Peper Chattem is not successful in said suit, and fails to recover any thing, that the amount of my expenses in defending said suit be charged, and deducted from the bequest by me made in said will for the use, and benefit of the said Peper Chattem, and be equally divided amongst my other devisees in said will, and lastly it is my desire that this codicil be attached, and considered a part of my said will to all intents, and purposes, hereby making it this, or former codicil, or codicils by me made and declaring this to be my only, and true codicil to my aforesaid last will, and Testament given under my hand and seal this 4th day of February 1854.

John Chattem (seal)

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the said John Chattem as a codicil to his last will, and Testament, in the presence of us, who in his presence, and at his request, have hereunto set our names as witnesses.

Edw. Grubb,
Jacob Womack,
David Womack.

I John Chattem, late of the County of Rhea State of Tennessee having hereunto first, to wit on the 4th day of May 1854, made, executed, signed, and sealed my last will, and Testament, and afterwards to wit on the 4th day of February 1854, I made, executed, and sealed a codicil to said last will, and Testament, and whereas the making said last will, and Testament, and the codicil thereto, John Chattem, one of the children of my son Peper Chattem, who is one of the legatees under my said will, has departed this life, leaving a widow, and one child, as I am informed, who have a competency, and are amply provided for without any aid, or assistance, from me, and being desirous to provide for the other two children of the said Peper Chattem, as far as I can, I hereby make this as an addition to my aforesaid will, and codicil to wit: It is my wish, and desire, and I hereby amend said will, and codicil, and give, and bequeath Mary J. Black, formerly Mary J. Chattem, and Emily J. Chattem, the other two children of said Peper Chattem, all that portion of my said estate bequeathed in my aforesaid will, to the three children of the said Peper Chattem hereby making that portion of said will, which bequeaths to John Chattem, one of the children of the said Peper Chattem, any portion, or part of my said estate, given under my hand, and seal this 4th day of June 1854, John Chattem (seal)

Signed, sealed, delivered in the presence of us, who witnessed the same, at the request of the said John Chattem in his presence, and in the presence of each other.

Wm. Scott Powell,

Edw. Grubb, State of Tennessee have into court Edward Grubb, County of Rhea, Chattem and John Chattem, and presented to the Court a paper testifying purporting to be the last will, and Testament, and Codicil, and Addition thereto of John Chattem Deed, wherein the said John Chattem, and Edward Grubb, are named as executors, and produced the same to be probated, and recorded, and thereupon there being no objection, appeared in open court, Scott Powell, Jacob Womack, and David Womack, and J. D. Chattem, the subscribers to said paper, who having been duly sworn, deposed, and said, as follows to wit, the said Scott Powell, deposed, and said, that he was acquainted with John Chattem, and the Testator, and that he saw the said John Chattem, sign, seal, publish, and hear him declare, said paper writing to be his last will, and Testament, in the said day, date, and that he the said Scott Powell, Jacob Womack, and John Womack, witnessed the same at the request of the Testator, and in his presence, that the said John Chattem at said time of said writing, or deposing memory, and the said Jacob Womack, and John Womack have since departed this life, and the said Edw. Grubb, and David Womack deposed, and said that they saw the said John Chattem, sign, seal, publish, and hear him declare, the Codicil, and amend to said will, on the day it bears date, and that the said John Chattem seemed to be of sound mind, and of disposing memory, and that Jacob Womack, the other devisee, who is dead, and the said J. D. Chattem deposed, and said that he saw the said Testator, John Chattem, sign, seal, publish, and hear him declare

The addition to said will, on the day it bears date, that he witnessed the same at the request, and in the presence of the said Testator, and in the presence of John S. Challen, the other subscribing witness to said addition, and that the said John Challen, appeared to be of sound mind, and disposing memory, given at office in Decatur the 28th day of April 1865.
