Last Will and Testament of W. F. Erwin

I, W. F. Erwin, do make and publish this as my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all wills that I may have heretofore made:-

First:- I direct the payment of my just debts and funeral expenses.

Second:-

I have heretofore advanced the sum of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) to each of my following children, to wit Jas. A. and Mr. F. Erwin; Jessie Mason, Ella Smith, Nova Parsons, Edna Hale, and Willie Lawrence, for which I hold their respective notes, the husbands of my said daughters joining with their wives in said notes. While I have been paid the interest along on said notes, it was not my intention to call for the principals, which were intended as advancements, and I hereby will and bequeath to my said children, and to the children of such as may be dead, his or her respective note, and the share of each of the above mentioned children will be charged in the settlement of my estate with said $200.00, regardless of whether or not the note may or may not be out of date, and the said notes in that way shall be cancelled.

Third:- My son, T. B. Erwin, and my deceased daughter, Bessie Peace, having received nothing from my estate, I will and bequeath to my said son, T. B. Erwin, and to Cora Peace, the adopted daughter of the said Bessie Peace, a sum of Two Hundred Dollars each to make them equal with the others.

Fourth:- The remainder of my estate I divide into equal shares, and bequeath to each of my living children one share, to the children of a deceased child together the share of such deceased child, and to the said Cora Peace one share.

Fifth:- I further direct that the bequests herein to Cora Peace, be held in trust for her by, J. W. Peace, whom I hereby designate and appoint as her guardian and he will serve without giving bond, and he is excused from making settlement with the County Court, and he is hereby given authority to expend the sums going to the said Cora Peace, under this will for her benefit in such way as he may see fit. If Cora should marry before becoming 21 years of age, the guardian shall use his discretion as to paying over to her said funds, but upon her arrival at the age of 21 years the same shall be to her. Should she die before arriving at the age of 21 years, or before her marriage, then the unexpended portion of said fund so remaining shall revert to my estate and descend to my children and heirs according to the laws of descent and distribution.

Sixth: I appoint my son Jas A Erwin Executor of this will and he will serve without bond.

Last Will and Testament of H. F. Hunt

I, H. F. Hunt of Illinois Plains, Tennessee County of Monroe being of sound mind and disposing memory to make present and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking and declaring void all ~~and~~ any wills heretofore by me any time made.

First: I desire and direct that all my funeral expenses be first paid.

Second: I desire and direct that all my just debts be paid with convenient speed.

Third: I give and bequeath to my following children to wit, Lois Morgan, Ella Ferguson, Nellie Ferguson, and Corlie Ferguson the sum of $600⁰⁰ each in addition to the land and money heretofore given and advanced to them. The sum of $600⁰⁰ to be paid by me before my death or to be paid out of my estate after my death. In the event the same is paid receipts will be taken therefor to show that the same has been advanced.

Fourth: I have already given or advanced to the said Lois Morgan the sum of $800⁰⁰ cash. I have given or advanced to Ella Ferguson about 160 acres approximately as her share in addition to the $600⁰⁰ heretofore provided for.

I have given and advanced to Nellie Ferguson the sum of $600⁰⁰ in money in addition to about 160 acres of land lying on Duckhole Creek in addition to the $600⁰⁰ heretofore provided for.

I have given to Corlie Rose approximately 160 acres of land as her share in addition to the $600⁰⁰ heretofore provided for her.

All of the land heretofore mentioned and all the money already advanced and to be advanced or to be advanced to them at my death is the share of each one of the said children in my estate.

Fifth: I give devise and bequeath to my said son D. L. Hunt all of the remainder of my property that is in my possession or that comes into my possession or my executor after my decease. I have already advanced to my said son D. L. Hunt about 160 acres of land, but it is my desire that he have all ~~the~~ property of any kind or character Real, personal and ^{mixed} not provided for to the other heirs and left by me at my death. I make this provision in my will owing to the fact that my son D. L. Hunt is to take care of me and provide for me the remainder of my natural life, and this provision is to apply not only to D. L.

Hunt but to his heirs who I

expect to carry out the same. I have explicit confidence in my said son D. L. Hunt and I believe him and his heirs will have carried out this provision at my death.

Sixth I do nominate and appoint H. B. Hunt and A. B. Boring as the Executors of this my last will and testament. Having confidence in their honesty and integrity. I do not require them to make or execute a bond as Executors to carry out my will.

Last Will and Testament of Andrew Jackson Lillard

Know all men by the Presents:

That I, Andrew Jackson Lillard, of Moore County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and publish this my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any time made.

I will and direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon as practicable after my death out of the first money coming to the hands of my Executor to be hereinafter named.

II

All of my children, to wit: Mollie Lillard Harris, John W. Lillard, Murrell L. Lillard, Estelle Lillard Buxton and my grand children, Robert Russell, and Mary Russell, children of my deceased daughter Nannie Lillard Russell, are equal in the way of advancements, as I have made the same advancement into to all my children in my lifetime, that to my daughter Nannie Lillard Russell, having been made to her before her death; so that in the division of my estate no advancements are to be taken into account, and any note or claim that I had against any of them shall be collected in the settlement of my estate as any other debt.

III

I will and direct that after my death, my children shall hold my property of every kind in common, or divide the same in kind, or sell all of the same and divide the proceeds as they see fit and proper, and the Trustee to be hereinafter appointed is hereby authorized and empowered to act for and on behalf of my grand children Robert Russell and Mary Russell, in the matter of disposing of said estate in as full and ample a manner as they could if they were of age and acting for themselves. If it shall be determined to hold the estate together after my death the net proceeds of the same shall be divided from time to time equally among my children and grand children hereinafter named, my two grand children taking the share that would have gone to their mother if she were living. And if it shall be determined best to sell my property and divide the proceeds then my Executors to be hereinafter appointed and hereby authorized and empowered to make and execute good warranty deeds for my real estate and pass title to any personal property.

It is my desire and so will and direct that all my property of every kind and nature, whether real, personal or mixed, wherever same may be located shall be divided equally between my children hereinafter named, the child or children of any child who may be dead to take the parts share.

IV

I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my daughter Mollie Lillard Harris, last named only, Trustee for Robert Russell and Mary Russell, to hold and handle for them their share of my estate, and she is hereby vested with full power authority and discretion in the use and handling of the same. She is to represent and act for them in the decedent of whatever the estate shall be held together or sold and divided; and she is vested with full authority to lend out or reinvest any funds of theirs coming from my estate, and may invest the same in real estate or personal property for their use and benefit and may break up the corpus of their said estate to the full extent of the amount of the same if she shall deem it necessary and proper for their education, maintenance and support, and she is hereby excused from giving bond as such trustee.

I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my sons John W. Lillard and Russell L. Lillard, my Executors to carry out this my last will and testament, and direct that they shall have One hundred Dollars from my estate as Compensation for winding up my said estate, and I hereby excuse them from making bond as such Executors or from making settlements with the County Court, and further direct that if either one of my sons shall fail to qualify as Executor the One who does qualify is vested with full power and authority under this Will as if he only had been appointed. In Testimony Whereof I have hereunto set my hand with this the 10th day of October, 1916. Andrew Jacobs Lillard

Wm. J. James and C. J. Young have signed over names hereto as witnesses of the request of the testator and in his presence and in the presence of each other and he signed the same in and presence as and for his last will and Testament
