Buford's land belonging to the estate of the late deceased Buford and for the Guardian of said heirs have let the said mill out for completion (as there was some part of it yet unfinished) and these men to whom he let the mill worked on it for about 2 or 3 months and they were still continuing towards but during the progress of the work there came a very heavy rain and washed it off and there is no only property I have received as Guardian for said heirs and it is unprofitable and yields nothing and I want to be exempt from the charge of the County Court against me for any thing or profit coming from said property
