L. A. Boman, Ad.

To the County Court of Oenton Comty, Tennessee:
 John Seiver, who was appointed administrator with the will annexed of the estate of John Overstrat, dead, respectfully reports that the property of the estate is and was at the time of his appointment, all in litigation and in the hands of persons who refuse to surrender it to him, and the title and right of possession being all unsettled, he has never been able to get any of the effects of the estate into his hands, and consequently could never make out any inventory. He has legal proceedings on foot for the recovery of the property, and when recovered, a true statement will be made.

Subscribed & sworn to in open Court
 August 2^d 1858.

The undersigned free holder of the County of Clanton, State of Tennessee, having been appointed by the County Court of said County Commissioner to set apart and lay off one year's maintenance to the widow of J. M. Carter, deceased, having been duly sworn make the following report:

We set apart the flour, 100 lbs., and wheat which she has on hand, supposed to be about 60 bushels, including some 16 bushels at J. J. Eldredges. For purchasing corn, there being on hand only about five bushels. We set apart two hundred dollars, which it is supposed will buy one hundred barrel. Also all her poultry on hand. We set apart the bacon and lard she has on hand, supposed to be one thousand pounds. Also two natch cows of her own selection. Also the dried fruit on hand, supposed to be three bushels. We also make a cash allowance of twenty five dollars for buying sugar and coffee. Also five dollars to buy salt besides what she has on hand. Also the soap and soap grease on hand. Also five dollars to buy allspice, soda pepper, &c. Also the potatoes on hand. And also two stacks of oats of her own selection.
