I, J. H. Russell, of Page, Perry County, Tennessee, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this as my last will and testament, hereby making and nothing void all others by me at any time made:

First: I direct that my funeral expenses and all my just debts be paid as soon after my death as possible, out of any moneys that I may die possessed of or may first come into the hands of my executor.

Secondly, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Ella, all the personal property that I may die seized and possessed of, and all the real estate that I own on Cypress Creek, which is in the Second Civil District of Perry County; all of said personal property to be owned by her, and disposed of at her wish, and pleasure, but the said real estate is to be owned by her during her life-time, and at her death to go to her heirs.

Thirdly, I give and bequeath to my son, Lee, my farm on Marsh Creek, known as the Sutton Place, and being in the First Civil District of Perry County, Tennessee, which land was purchased by me at a Public Sale of the lands of J. P. Sutton, and conveyed to me by deed from A. E. Hobbs, Executor; which land is to be owned by my said son in fee simple, but should he die seized and possessed of said land, and leave his wife, Ora, as his widow, then and in that event it is my wish that she have the use of said land during her widowhood, but at her death or marriage said land is to go to my son's next of kin, if he has no heirs at law. But since there is so much woods land on this farm, and so little on the Sutton Place, which adjoins, I want said Woods land divided as follows: Beginning at a white oak stump, same being the beginning corner of the Sutton land, on the road, running with the North line, so far as the throoming line goes, and continuing north all the way through my wood land, going all on the east side to the throom's place.

Fourthly, I give and bequeath to my daughter, Lina Morris and her children, Norma J. and Reba Morris, my farm on Marsh Creek, in the First Civil District of Perry County, Tenn., known as the J. R. Throom's place; which is to be owned by them as tenants in common, and in fee simple, in the following proportion: my said daughter, Lina Morris, to own one half undivided interest in said land, and my said grand-children, Norma J. and Reba Morris, jointly, to own the other one half undivided interest in said land, which will make my said grand-children owners of one-fourth undivided interest in the whole. And it is my further will and desire that should I die before these said grand-children become of age it is my wish and will that their said mother, Lina Morris, hold in trust for them, their interest in said property, until they become of age, without having to be annoyed and troubled with a proceeding to qualify and give bond as their guardian.

Fifthly, and lastly, I do hereby nominate and appoint my said daughter, Lina Morris, my executrix, without bond.

In witness whereof, I do to this my will, set my hand, this 24th day of July, 1926.
