WILL RECORD

J. M. B. Rainey, of Lawrence, Perry County Tennessee. Do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, revoking all other wills by me at any time heretofore made.

(First) It is my desire, and I direct that, my executor, or executors, pay all just debts by me owing at the time of my death, and if there should be a sufficient amount of money on hand at that time for that purpose, then my executor, or executors, is directed and is hereby authorized to convert into cash or spending as possible a sufficient amount of personal assets of my estate for such purpose. And if there still remains an insufficient amount to pay said debts, then my executor, or executors, is directed, and is hereby clothed with full power to sell a sufficient amount of real estate for such purpose on such terms as said executor or executors may deem best, conveying absolutely fee simple title to the purchaser, or purchasers, of same.

(Second) It is my will and desire, and I do hereby give, devise and bequeath to my wife Emma Rainey absolutely and for her own use and benefit, in fee simple, and to do with as she pleases, the whole property situated in the town of Lawrence, Tennessee where we now live, including the furnishings, together with the lot, barn, and all other improvements thereon which give power to transfer and convey title should she so desire. This property was purchased by me from the heirs of P. L. Smothers, deceased.

(Third) It is my will and desire, and I do hereby give, devise and bequeath to my wife, the said Emma Rainey, all the remainings of my said estate, both real and personal, of whatever kind and character, and where ever situate, to have and to hold, and to enjoy, for and during her natural life, but with the understanding and of some stipulation that she shall not be required to account for, or to replace, articles or property consumed in use or perished in character. My said estate at this time, in addition the whole property disposed of in the second clause hereof, consists of a farm situated in the Third Civil District of Perry County, Tennessee. About three miles north of the town of Lawrence the same having been purchased by me from J. M. Land and J. M. Lomas. This said farm my said wife is to occupy and manage or she may deem best to the end that she may be clothed to supply her own wants and needs, and to educate, support and maintain our minor children until she see shall have reached the age of twenty-one years.

PERRY COUNTY

(Fourth) It is further my will and desire that, should my said wife die before all of our said children have reached the age of twenty-one years, then in that event, I hereby direct that the said property herein given, devised and bequeathed to my said wife for and during her natural life, mentioned in the third clause of this will, shall remain intact until the youngest of our said children shall have reached the age of twenty-one years. Said property to be operated and managed, until our said youngest child shall have reached said age. By a properly appointed administrator who shall serve under the limitations, restrictions and provisions of this will, and the proceeds so derived from the management and use of said property shall be used for the education, support and maintenance of such child or children until they are have reached the age of twenty-one years, and should it not require the whole of the proceeds of said property for such purpose, then such sum, or sums, as may remain shall be held by said administrator to be given absolutely to any among are my children and representatives, after my said youngest child shall have reached his or her majority.

(Fifth) After the death of my said wife Emma Rainey, and all our said children have reached the age of twenty-one years, then it is my will and desire, and I hereby give, bequeath and direct that all my said property, of every kind and character, except such as is given absolutely to my said wife Emma to be disposed of as she may desire, shall pass and be divided equally to all my children and representatives of children, the child or children of any deceased child of mine taking such

share or want have gone to such person
son or daughter of mine.

(Sixth) It is further my will and desire that my sons who may be living at the time when the final distribution of my estate becomes necessary, that is, at the happening of the events herein before mentioned shall have my said farm to be divided among themselves, provided that they shall first pay to my other children, or representatives of children, such sums, or sums, as at the time may be necessary to equalize them all in sharing my said estate. It being my intention that all my children shall share equally. The representatives of children living at that time shall have gone to my deceased parents or parents. But in the event my said sons do not or cannot, pay the said sums, or sums, as may be necessary to equalize the distribution of my estate among all my children and representatives of children, then in that event, it is my will and desire that said

farm be sold and the proceeds divided as herein set out.

It is my will that my said sons have said farm on the condition stated, and when they comply with said condition promptly upon the happening of the events mentioned.

Then they are not to be interfered with in the use and enjoyment of same by my other children or grand children. And should my said children be unable to agree upon a valuation of said farm in making an equal distribution of my estate, then in that event they shall call in three disinterested persons, with of five or Council, who shall appraise said land, and said appraisal shall be final for the purpose of making said settlement.

(Seventh) It is further my will and desire, and I hereby signify and direct that, should any child or children, grand child or grand children being a beneficiary herein, be dissatisfied with the provisions of this my last will and testament, and for any way to prevent the orderly execution and settlement of same then in that event such child or children
grand child or grand children shall have no

PERRY COUNTY

share or interest in the distribution of my said estate.
(Eighth) I hereby nominate and appoint my wife Emma Plaine sole executrix of this my last will and testament and direct that she be not required to execute bond or surety.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 18th day of April, 1903.

M. B. Plaine.

Signed by the said M. B. Plaine, as and for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, the undersigned, who, at his request, and in his sight and presence, have subscribed our names hereto as attesting witnesses, the day and date above written.

WILL RECORD

Whereas, J. M. Daniel, am considerably advanced in years, and fully recognize the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death; and whereas it has pleased an all wise God to permit me to accumulate some property, as and where I have journeyed through this life, and also to have a family of children and a wife, some or all of whom may out live and survive me; and whereas I am desirous of making some divisions of my property among my children, which I am in the right use and exercise of my best judgment, and am now sound in both body and mind, apparently, in such way, that the laws of descent and distribution might not be fully sufficient to meet in the division of my property among my said children, Now, Therefore J. M. Daniel, a resident of Crooked Creek, Tenn. Daniel Lanning, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby and publish this as and for my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all other wills and Testaments by me at any time heretofore made of whatever kind or character.

I hereby direct and request that all my just debts, including funeral expenses and expenses of administration be paid by my executor.

I have this day by a warranty deed conveyed to my two sons, C. A. Daniel and H. L. Daniel two tracts of land now owned by me - The first embracing what is known as Daniels Landing and all buildings and improvements of every kind now on it and several acres of tillable lands, lying on the east bank of Tennessee River just below the mouth of Crooked Creek just north of and adjoining T. C. Butts lands; and also one half, the south end of a timber tract of land owned by me lying in the lower about one half to three quarters of a mile east of Tennessee River, This conveyance made however as if to retain all the rents of said tract so conveyed to them by me, during the remainder of my natural life, and then in the event my wife should out live me, they are to take absolute and unconditional control of said lands at once upon my death and pay to my beloved wife during the remainder of her natural life the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars per year as long as she may live, as rents on said property, this being the full amount they are to be compelled to pay to her on said property, or in the event I should out live her, then at my death they are to take and have the full and absolute control and management of said property at once upon my death, as in the other event of her out living me. And I now wish to fully confirm and ratify this conveyance in the equalization and division my property among my children as I think and wish it to be made. This property thus decided to my two sons C. A. Daniel and H. L. Daniel shall constitute the full and entire amount which they are to have and receive out of and from my estate, at any time, and should they die before I do and leave any children who may take as their heirs, then their said children not to have or receive any other amount out of my estate other than what is decided to the said C. A. Daniel and H. L. Daniel, except what may be account them as my executor, as per therefor.

I further give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Martha Daniel, in the event she should out live and survive me as my lawful widow, out of the remainder and residue of all my property which may be left after deducting from it the property thus decided to my two sons, C. A. Daniel and H. L. Daniel just such property and rights in both quality and quantity in my property as she would take according to law in the event she should survive me as my said widow, it being my intention and desire to give to her said and nothing in any way, fully all the law would allow her.

I next give, devise and bequeath, acc.

WILL RECORD

The rest and residue and remainder of my property of whatever kind and character and wheresoever situated, which I may die seized and possessed of, to the remainder of my children and those who may stand in the place of my children and represent a parent who is my child, so as to divide such remainder and residue of my said property among all the remainder of my children equally. And it is my will, desire and request that this property shall go to the remainder of my children share and share alike and be taken by them, and they shall come into the control and possession of the same, and dispose of the same in the same way, manner, time and place as they would inherit same under the laws of inheritance, it being my intention to leave the management, control and disposition of the property so devised to the remainder of my said children to their own best judgment and discretion, provided such judgment and discretion shall be at all times exercised so as to fully recognize the rights of the said C. A. Daniel and J. L. Daniel in and to the property this day devised to them, and also so as to recognize her rights of my said wife Martha Daniel in and to said property, in the event she should and line run.

I do hereby nominate, appoint and fully constitute my two sons, C. A. Daniel and J. L. Daniel joint executors to this my last will and testament, and excuse them from the execution of any bond it being my intention to empower them to carry out the provisions of this my last will and testament with and being burdened with the execution of a bond, they to be the sole executors of this will and testament.

In witness whereunto, I hereunto set my signature, this 2nd day of November 1914.

Signed by the said J. M. Daniel, as and whereas it has pleased and all wise and loving god to permit me to live to a reasonably old age and to acquire and now be in possession of some property, both real and personal, and whereas I am now somewhat feeble in body, but am of sound mind and disposing memory and knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, I, J. A. Duall, a resident of Hickman county, Tennessee do make and publish this my last will and Testament hereby revoking all former wills to me at any time made.

First

I direct that all my just debts including funeral expenses and expenses of administration, be paid by my executor and I want a grave stone placed at my grave, the cost of which shall be in keeping with my estate and manner of living.

Second

I will and bequeath, give and devise to my beloved wife, Nancy Duall, such interest in my personal property as she would be entitled to and take under the law, both as to quality and quantity, and kind and character, if she should survive me; and I further give and devise to my said wife, in and out of my real estate which I may own at my death, such rights and interests as she would take and be entitled to as exemptions, for homestead and dower rights, under the law as my surviving widow; and it is further my will and desire that she, in addition, to her rights in said real estate as and for her homestead and dower rights, shall have and hold all

I. W. H. Harger, of Perry County, Tennessee. do hereby and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me at any time made.

First: I direct that all my just debts and expenses of Administration, be paid by my executor as speedily as possible after sufficient funds have come into his hands.

Second: I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved Wife Belle Harner, all my household and kitchen furniture, and the sum of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, which said sum of money my executor will pay to her out of the first money belonging to my estate coming into his hands. I further give, devise and bequeath to my said Wife, for and during her Natural Life, or during Widowhood, my Home Place, Consisting of a tract of about Fifty Acres of land, Purchased by me from Nancy Harner, by deed dated February 25: 1884 and a tract of about _____ Acres, Purchased by me from Wm. Randle, by deed dated May 8. 1882, said tracts including my residence, a store house, and outbuildings. And at the death of my said Wife, or should she marry again, then in either event, I give, devise and bequeath the whole of the real estate herein devised and bequeathed to her, to my Children, to be shared by them equally, but should any of my Children die in the meantime, before the happening of either contingency, leaving Children, then such Children would take the share which would have gone to their said Parent, or Parents.

Third: I give, devise and bequeath to my son Charles H. Harner, for during his Natural Life only, a tract of land known as the Flury tract, a tract Purchased by me from E. B. Flury by deed dated Aug. 27. 1898, and containing about 250 Acres. And at the death of my said son Charles, and should he die without Children, then I give, devise and bequeath the land herein devised and bequeathed to him.

to my other Children to be shared by them ~~to~~ equally, but should any of my other Children have died in the meantime before the death of my son Charles, leaving Children then such Children would take the share which would have gone to their said Parent, as Parents, but the devise herein to my son Charles does not include the Merchantable Timber now standing on said tract, consisting of Hickory, Oak of all species, and Chestnut, and should I not sell said timber during my lifetime, then at my death my executor is authorized and directed to sell said Merchantable timber consisting of Hickory, Oak of all species, and Chestnut, and divide the proceeds thereof among my several Children in ~~the~~ some manner as I have directed the real estate to be divided, that is, the Children of any ~~deceased~~ Child of mine, would take the share which would have gone to such deceased Parent.

This special devise and request herein made to my said son Charles, is to equalize him with my other Children, W.A. Harner, Bertha Armstrong, Minnie McDemore and E. H. Harner, to whom I have already made advancements.

Fourth: I further direct that all my other Property, both real and personal, of whatever Character and wherever situated, not otherwise disposed of herein, shall be equally divided between my Children or representatives of Children; and if there should be any real estate not otherwise disposed of, my executor is directed and authorized to sell same and distribute the proceeds equally among my Children and representatives of Children.

Fifth: I hereby Nominate and Appoint my son W.A. Harner, sole executor of this my last Will and Testament, this August 7, 1918.

The third Clause of my said original will, wherein I gave, devised and bequeathed to my son Charles N. Harner for and during his natural life, certain real estate, is to be of No further force or effect, and is abrogated, and so be treated as null and void. Said devise of land in said third clause was made to equalize my said son Charles with my other children, to whom I had made equal advances, of the value of $4,000.00 each; but since the execution of my original will I have advanced to my son Charles the sum of $2,500.00. and it is my intention to advance him the additional sum of $1,500.00. making a total of $4,000.00, thus equalizing him with my other children. And, if the said sum of $1,500.00, as mentioned, is not given to him during my life, then he is to receive same, as such part of same as may remain unpaid to him out of my estate after any distribution is made among my children. it being my intention that all my children shall share equally in the final distribution of my estate. And said tract of land, or the proceeds thereof, mentioned in said third clause of my original will, will be divided among all my children as directed in the fourth clause of my original will. This July 26, 1923.

I, M.P. Haynes, of Denson's Landing, Perry County, Tennessee, do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament, revoking all other wills, and Codicils thereto, by me at any time heretofore made.

First: It is my desire, and I hereby direct that, my executors hereinafter nominated, shall pay all just debts of me owing at the time of my death.

Second: It is my last will and desire, and I hereby give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Belle Haynes, the following property, to wit:

(1) A one third (1/3) interest in my 500 acre tract of land, known as the Spencer tract, situated in Decatur County, Tennessee, opposite Denson's Landing, the one third of said tract herein given my said wife shall be land off in the middle of said tract: the North and South one-third being hereinafter given my daughter Lena and my son Hugh, my directions being that said tract be divided into North, Middle and South one-third off and between my wife, daughter and son, and in the event they cannot agree then three disinterested persons may be designated by them to so divide it, and let it also my will, and I hereby direct that, should there be any encumbrance on said tract at my death, then in that event each one-third is to see an equal part of said encumbrance. The one-third herein given my wife is without limitation.

(2) Also without limitation, I give my wife a one-third undivided interest in my 600 acre tract of land, known as the Buzzard Roost tract situated in Decatur County, Tennessee.

WILL RECORD

Appalache Delong Landing, Tennessee, and adjoining the Spencer tract.
 (3) Also my said wife is to have absolutely my right share of bank stock in the First National Bank of Lenoir, Tennessee, and also all household and kitchen furniture, and all livestock of all kinds ~~which~~ I may own at my death.

(4) Also my said wife Belle is to have for and during her natural life a one-half undivided interest in a five acre tract, some being a part of the Dandridge Landing tract, which when said wife shall include the residence where I now live, one tenant house, a garden and a calf lot situated between the said residence and the store building. And at the death of my said wife the undivided one-half interest in said five acre tract herein given her is to go absolutely to my son Hugh M. Haynes. Fifth: To the widow and children of my deceased son George W. Haynes, namely Mrs. Belle Davis (ne Haynes), and her children Robert Haynes, Moody Haynes, Edward Haynes, James Haynes, I give, devise and bequeath to each of them the sum of ten ($1000) Dollars only, circumstances recently happening, and now existing, persuaded me that this is necessary and equitable in the matter of distribution among my children and representatives of children.

Sixth: To Henry Cuthom and Robert Cuthom, surviving children of my deceased daughter Dora Haynes Cuthom, I give, devise and bequeath to each of them the sum of ten ($1000) Dollars only, because of satisfactory and equitable reasons.

Seventh: To my daughter Lina Haynes Frazer, I give, devise and bequeath a one-third (1/3)

PERRY COUNTY

I, J. C. Burns, a resident of Ridgeway, Perry County, Tenn., being of sound mind and body, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills of me at any time made.

(1).—I give, devise and bequeath to my grand child, Minnie Bell DePriest who is now about 8 or 10 years old, and will according to nature outline me three hundred dollars in cash out such estate as I may die seized and possessed of—this amount to be paid to her in cash out of my estate, by my executor at once, or as soon as practicable after my death. If there is not enough cash on hand at my death, for my executor to pay her this amount in cash, then in that event, I direct that my executor sell enough personal property or collect enough in debts, which may be due me to make out this amount, and if there is not enough cash on hand and not enough debts due my estate, or enough of other personal property on hand which may be sold, or all together to make this amount of cash, then I make this charge upon such real estate as I may then own, and direct that my children or representatives of children, who may then be living and inherit my said estate, will pay or cause to be paid to my executor this three hundred dollars in cash to be paid to the said Minnie Bell DePriest; and in the event this amount should have to be paid by my said children, who may inherit my real estate, this amount will be divided among them so as to charge each of the other shares equally in making up this amount.

(2).—It is my intention and will to limit the said Minnie Bell DePriest to this amount in my estate; and she is not to have any other amount or portion of my estate then this three hundred dollars in cash as provided
