The Last Will and Testament of Samuel Robinson Decedent

I Samuel Robinson of the County of Meigs and State of Tennessee being weak of body but of sound mind and disposing memory, and being desirous that my property should be disposed of after my death, in such way and manner as to me at least appears to be right, do hereby make for and do declare this to be my last will and testament in force and effect to wit:

I will and bequeath that my funeral expenses be first paid together with any just debts which are due or may be due out of any money or effects, which I may die seized or possessed of. I further will and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary Robinson and my children Franklin Robinson, Charles Robinson, James L. Robinson, and Mary C. Robinson all the lands and personal property that I may die seized and possessed of as common stock, the proceeds thereof to be managed and controlled by my said wife and eldest son, to be applied as far as necessary to the maintenance of my wife and children and the education of said children, for and during the natural life of my said wife, leaving it entirely with her, that in the event that my said children should marry, to give said child such portion of said common stock which may then be on hand as she may deem right and proper, due regard being had by her to an equitable division of said common stock.

I further will and direct that after my death there be no sale of my personal property and effects, or any part thereof, and no inventory thereof made and returned to the County Court, or any public Administration, until there be under the supervision of the County Court, leaving the whole to be controlled by my said wife as she may deem most advisable for the advancement of the interest of her and my said children.

I further will and direct that in the event that I should die before I have sold the said stocks and personal property, then my said family should have the same in hands as Common Stocks that my said wife and I should have sold the same at private sale upon such terms as they may deem most advisable for the advancement of the interests of my said wife and child. I hereby authorize and empower my said wife to collect all debts due me and give acquittances therefor as my Executor without requiring of her any bond or security for the discharge of any duties as Executor. Being fully satisfied that she will manage and conduct the whole of my said property to the best advantage and for the advancement of the interest of my said children. Hereby revoking all other Wills or Wills Codicils or Codicils heretofore made by me and declaring this to be my only true last will and testament. In witness whereof I have set my hand and seal this 10th day of May 1866.
