Inventory of the Estate of A Keith decd.

To the Hampshire County Court of Rhea County Tennessee.

I herewith present and submit to you, as Inventory of the Estate of my Deceased A Keith decd. including graft and disbursements up to the time

A list of the assets coming into my hands as Administrator of the Estate of the deceased is as follows:

One Note date Oct 13th 1892 bearing interest from date paid in for $834⁰⁰ with a credit thereon of $190⁰⁰ when it came into my hands being signed by the Gen. Atty. Gen. Campbell

One Note date March 16th 1888 due then year after date for $60⁰⁰ signed by J. H. Keith with $5⁰⁰ on Oct 1st 1889

One Note signed by J. H. Keith date July 1st 1879 due July 1st 1880 to bear 10% interest after it became due.

I have received $200⁰⁰ on the first note above described and one of that have paid $240⁰⁰ on the second expense of the estate leaving a balance of $174.00 cash in my hands.
It is proper to say however that the general expense is amounted altogether to $141.50 $24⁰⁰ of which I paid and $117⁵⁰ which were paid by the Gen. Atty. Gen. Campbell on the Note first above described. making a credit of $143.75.

The Deceased had collected during his life on the 1st Note the sum of $77.00. The parties J. H. Keith and B. Keith being two of the notes above described are heirs at law of the Deceased, and their interests in his estate will probably secure the amount of their notes and I have therefore signed for having no debt against them. The Note first described is in form of a certificate in the County Court of Dayton, Ohio.
Prosperity Submitted. This Oct 5th 1896.
