of the Estate of the deceased is as follows:

for $834.00 with a credit thereon of $190.00 when it came into my hands being signed by the Gen. Atty. W. H. Campbell

I have received $200.00 on the first note above described and one of that have paid $240.00 on the second. Expense of the estate having a balance of $177.00 cash in my hands.
It is proper to say however that the general expense is

A Statement of the account of Emma Morgan,

To the Worshipful County Court of Rich City Tennessee Present to hand in book comes made

The above amounts so received by me were entirely received from the assets of the Estate of said dec'd, set out and contained in the inventory filed in this Court and shown to by me on April 5, 1894.

I have expended the following amounts:

Collected him in disposing of merchandise of above Nov 94	80 50

The mercantile business belonging to P. C. Morgan and brother contained in my inventory, together with all other property set out therein has been sold part of it at public sale and part of it at private sale. The merchandise was necessarily closed out at a gross sacrifice owing to close hand, and other expenses incident thereto, and it being the remains of an old & hard stock. The amount of money received by me and reported as above represents the principal amount of said former inventory. I have a judgment against H. C. Morgan for $900.00 taken Sept 23rd 1894 before J. C. Cook J. for Rich County which represents the balance due in a claim of said dec'd from H. C. Morgan who was the managing partner of P. C. Morgan and brother in the death of said dec'd.
I have noted on this judgment the two bills of $100.00 & 100.00 long paid in Nov & Dec 1896 as above shown.

I bid in the Elgin ferry and fixtures shown in my former inventory estimated to be worth $319.00 at the price of $20.00 and still have same on hand, with this exception the book shown above to have been received together with the papers against H. C. Morgan represent the entire balance I deal in.
