To the Worshipful the County Court of Robertson

Your petitioners Joseph Wimberly and wife two Courne citizens of said County would humbly represent to your worshipful body that that they are joint owners of a certain negro slave named Luke about fifty years of age whom they inherited from their mother and mother-in-law Sarah Wimberly Dec'd said slave Luke had been a servant of their said mother and her deceased husband Joseph Wimberly Dec'd a long time previous to their decease and conducted himself in such a manner as to secure their good will always considering himself as a faithful servant Petitioners would represent that they have been owners of D. Lums since the death of their said mother and that his conduct has been uniformly the same as above described & humble in his disposition, industrious in his habits (together with the great services rendered their family) and a wish expressed on his part to be emancipated, motives strong and powerful have actuated petitioners to do so.

Petitioners pray your Worship that you will emancipate said ^{negro} Lums & your petition will ever pray.

It is ordered by the Court that said Lums be emancipated as aforesaid to the prayer of the above, on the petitioners foregoing complying with the requisites of the statute.

Curdy J. Bryan Chairman Know all men by these presents that we Joseph Wimberly and Milton Bourne and Matthew Williams of the County of Robertson and State of Tennessee hold and firmly bound unto John Hutchinson Chairman of the County Court and his successors in office in the penal sum of two thousand dollars to which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves our heirs & Executors and Administrators & jointly and severally jointly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this 9th day of November 1829.

The condition of the above obligation is such that whereas the above bound Joseph Wimberly and Milton Bourne hath this day filed their petition in Court and therefore obtained a decree of the freedom of a certains negro man named Lums as is set out and described in said petition, now of the said Joseph Wimberly and Milton Bourne shall well and truly at all times indemnify the County of Robertson from becoming chargeable with said negro Lums then their obligation to be void else to be and remain in full force and virtue according to the true intent and meaning hereof upon the petition of Joseph Wimberly and Milton Bourne filed for the emancipation of a negro man named Lums. It is therefore decreed by the Court that said negro Lums be emancipated upon said Wimberly and Bourne giving bond and security in the sum of two thousand dollars for indemnifying the County which they accordingly do. It is therefore ordered by the Court that the proceedings be recorded and that certificate is and as the law directs.
