Joseph Perry's will

In the name of God Amen
I Joseph Perry of the County of Robertson and State of Tennessee being of sound mind and possessing a disposing memory according to the human mind but regarding the will of Heaven provided as it is declared that all men shall die, I feel disposed while I am enjoying a reasonable portion of health and strength to make some disposition of such worldly estate as it hath pleased Heaven to provide to bless me with in life for which privilege I feel thankful to Almighty God, and make the following bequest to wit:

1st My will and desire is that at my death that it may please God to take my soul to eternal joy and my body to be decently buried in a Christian like burial by my heirs hereafter named, and that my Executor discharge all my just debts out of my estate should there be any outstanding at my death.

2^d I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary Perry the one half of the tract of land on which I live with one half of the plantation with the Mansion house and kitchen together with all the household and kitchen furniture said tract of land containing three hundred and twenty acres, also my four negroes to wit, Kate, Sells, Bob and Charles, one mare, bridle and saddle called Bona, two cows, and calves, her choice of my stock, eight head of sheep her choice of my stock, two breeding sows her choice of my stock, also a part of the farming utensils such as she would stand in need of, also a sufficient quantity of corn, wheat, pork or bacon as would be sufficient for the support of her and her family one year, and should my unhappy death occur at her death to dispose of her wearing apparel, bidding or any small articles she may deem proper, she is at liberty to make such distribution among her children, the foregoing property is given to my beloved wife during her natural life and after her death to be equally divided among my children to wit, Hannah, Nancy, John, Jane and Sally share and share alike.

3^d I give and bequeath to my grand son Joseph Parkey five dollars to be paid out of the proceeds of my property bearing given heretofore to my daughter his mother what I deem his proportionable part of my estate.

4th My will and desire is that after the sale of my property and all money arising therefrom to be collected by my

Executor hereinafter named and to be by him kept at interest until the death of my wife and then be equally divided amongst my children above mentioned

5th And lastly I nominate constitute and appoint my son John G. Perry executor of this my last will and testament hereby revoking and annulling all other and former wills by me heretofore made ratifying and confirming this to be my last will and testament In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this seventh day of March 1838
