The foregoing bequests are to make my children and their representatives part of my estate and I desire that no further notice shall be taken of advancement in any way.

I direct my executor to buy and give Wiley Robertson a good suit of woolen cloth, also hat, shirt, slips, soap, shoes and suspenders, and I give to said Wiley my shot gun, and I direct my executor to give him $100, but each and all of the above requests to said Wiley are made upon the condition that he shall remain with me until he is 18 years of age, or until my death.

I give to Marion Webb, who now lives with me: Marion's trunk and one bedstead, and necessary bedding to go with same to make a bed. The stead and bedding to be selected by my executor.

I give to Pearl Webb one bedstead and bedding for same to be selected by my executor.

Sixth: I give to my son Geo. W. J. Stott, my hog fork, rope and plow for same.

Eighth: I direct that all the rest and residue of my estate of whatsoever nature, quantity, quality and kind shall be equally divided among my following children to wit: 1st. Charley G. Webb. 2nd L. D. Webb. 3rd J. C. Webb. 4th James Webb.
5th M. C. Webb. 6th M. A. Ward. and 7th M. E. Stott, without considering or taking any notice of advancement in any way at any time made by me.

Ninth: If my estate shall not be sufficient to fully pay and satisfy all the bequests made in this will to my children and grand-children and dependents up to the eight clause of this will, I direct that

Last Will of W. H. Webb, the proceeds of my said estate shall be applied in the payment of said bequests pro rata which shall be a full satisfaction of the said bequests. But this clause shall not apply to the support of my wife or to her funeral expenses, or to the erection of tombstone, as I desire that those bequests shall be fully paid.
Tenth: I hereby nominate, and appoint my son in law J. D. Stott and my son L. D. Webb, as my executors with full power and authority to execute and carry into effect all the provisions of this will and they are authorized to take possession of and sell my real and all property that I may have as apart of my estate. If either of my executors shall refuse to act then the other shall have full power to execute this will.
If either of my executors above named shall refuse to act then I appoint my son J. C.
Webb as my executor to act in the place of the one so refusing if he will.
This Will is written on two sheets of paper both of which are signed by me as apart of my will-making in all my complete will.

II. I devise to my beloved wife, Belle, all my lands in the 14 civil district of Sevier County Tenn. all lying adjoining and in one body, though conveyed to me by several deeds, being the lands whereon we now reside, for and during her natural life or widowhood; and at her decease or remarriage the same shall go to and vest in her children, the issue of our marriage.
In case she should die or remarry, leaving any children under full age, the said lands shall be kept and held without division until the youngest child shall come of age, (or die should death first happen) the proceeds of same to go and be used for the support education and maintenance of the family left there.

I also give her our house-
