LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF M.B.McMAHAN.

I, M.B.McMahan of Sevierville Tennessee, do make and publish this, my last will and testament, hereby revoking any others by me made.

First: I give unto my beloved wife, Kate Chandler, all of my household and kitchen furniture, beds, bedding, clothing, my iron safe at the office, and all the loose articles about the lot where we live, also all of my books, except law-books, the latter of which I give to George L. Zirkle. and poultry also to her.

Second. I devise to my said wife, during her natural life, the house and lot, or lots, on which we now reside, including six feet in width next to P.T. Haggard, which is now enclosed in his side, and which I have contracted to him at ten dollars ($10.00.) per foot. She is to make him a deed for same in fee, when he pays therefor, and if he fails to do so, the said foot strip is to belong to her said lot. She may sell and re-invest any part of said lot in other good real estate, deeding the title to herself for life and with the privilege of selling and re-investing from time to time as the property may be sold. In case it should in her judgment be necessary to use any part of the proceeds of said lot, of the corpus of said lot, for her comfortable support, she is authorized to do so, subject to her life estate and the conditions on which the same is devised, the said lot is devised to my children equally, vesting them with the fee simple estate severally.

Third. I give to Mrs. H. Leake $250.00., to all the children of Mrs. Ellen S. Solomon $150.00., altogether and to Morris and M.B.Jr. I give $25.00. each.

Fourth. I have contracted to my son Stanley, a one fourth of a one third interest in a property known as the Walker Milling & Produce Company. at a price of $1250.00. and I here devise said interest to him, which he is to account for as an advancement. To my daughter Rosa. I have advanced altogether $1.100.00., which she is to account for, as stated. To my son M.B.Jr., I have advanced in the way of education the amount I consider he should account for, to wit: $250.00., but he is to have the expenses of the present year of his schooling at the University of Tennessee, without any further charge, and he is to be sent to school at the same place next year, provided he wishes to go, charging him, as an advancement, with the actual expenses of his schooling and clothing, not to exceed $250.00.

In order to equalize my children in the way of education, I bequeath to Morris $500.00. towards the expenses of his education.

Fifth. My executors are authorized to sell any of my real estate not herein otherwise particularly disposed of, and make title and collect the proceeds, but they are to use due caution in selling so as not to sacrifice any particular piece of property.

I devise to my wife and children equally, my remaining interest in the property known as the Walker Milling & Produce property. In case it should become necessary or proper to sell said real estate, either on account of my family wanting to dispose of it or for partition with the other owners, a guardian of a minor may sell his share and make title thereto.

I direct that my wife and children, or that Stanley, take steps to operate their interests in said Milling Company as silent partners.

Sixth. My Executors will invest $10.000. in a good, productive farm. The title will be vested in my wife for life, with the remainder vested in fee simple in my children, it being understood that any remainders that my children take under this will, are present vested remainders. In selecting said farm, my executors are to look to its productiveness, quality and condition chiefly. My wife will not in all probability, want to live on it, so that it will not be desirable to have extensive and valuable improvements or fine location. They will use their best judgment to buy a farm that will yield a good income, and, at the same time, sell again. Should it become necessary to my wife's support, she may appeal to the Court and have a part of the corpus of this farm applied to her support, and if, after the same is bought, it be found that it is not yielding a satisfactory income, it may be sold and the proceeds re-invested in an other piece of real estate of a like kind, taking the title in the same way.

WILL OF M.B. McMAHAN. CONTINUED.

Seventh. The rest of my estate are, or proceeds of my estate not otherwise disposed of herein, I give and bequeath to my children, to be divided among them equally, subject however to an account of advancements set out herein above.

Eighth. The shares of my daughters in my estate, real or personal, are hereby vested in them severally, whether in presenti or not remainder as separate estates free from all right, contrroll or interest of any husband they may take, and with the right to dispose of same by will.

Eighth. I nominate and constitute my son Stanley and my friend, George L. Zirkle, executors of this will.

WILL OF PENELOPE C FELKER. DECEASED.

I, Penelope C. Felker (Widow.), of Boyds Creek, Tennessee, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all othe wills by me at any time heretofore made.

First. It is my will that within a reasonable time after my decease all of my just debts shall be paid, and suitable monument be provided and erected at my grave by my executors, to be paid for out of my estate.

Second. I will and direct that within reasonable time after my decease, my executors divide equally among all of my children all of my household and kitchen furniture.

Third. It is my will and I hereby direct and empower my Executors to sell all of my estate, both real and personal not above devised, either at private or public sale, and for cash in hand, or on time as in their judgment may seem to the best interest of my estate, and I hereby fully empower them to make and deliver to the purchaser a deed in fee therefor.

They will consummate such sale as soon after my death as in their judgment is best.

Fourth. It is my will, and I hereby direct that the entire proceeds of my said estate, real and personal, (Except as above devised.) shall, when the same comes to the hands of said Executors be paid by them to my five children equally in the following interests and manner; to E.M. Felker, one fifth; to W.H. Felker a one fifth, to S.M. Felker a one fifth; and to Walter Felker, a one fifth; the one fifth of my daughter Cordie Harris Stansberry shall be held by my Executors, and by them invested by them in real estate as soon as they can advisedly do so and to the best interest of my said daughter according to the judgment of said Executors, after consulting the wishes of said Cordie H.

The title to such real estate so purchased to be taken to said Cordie H Stansberry for and during her natural life, free from the debts and control of her present husband, or any future husband she may have, with remainder to her heirs.

Fifth. In the event any of my said children should not survive me, then it is my will that the interest of such pre-deceased child or children shall go to the legal representatives of such

I, Ezekiel Connatser, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make and publish this this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made, viz: First: I want all my just debts and funeral expenses to be paid out of my estate as soon after my death as may be reasonably done.

Second, I want and direct that my wife Elizabeth Connatser, shall have enough of the rents and proffits of my real estate in the 4 Civil District of Sevier County, where I now live, to provide for her necessary care, support, and maintenance for and during her natural life, and I also direct that my said wife's funeral expenses shall be paid out of my estate.

Third, I direct that my daughters, to wit: Martha Jane Large, Lilly Ann E. Dixon, shall each have the sum of Three Hundred and Fifty Dollars, to be paid to them out of my estate, but I hereby devise to my said two daughters, jointly, a tract of about 25 acres of land in the 4 Civil Dist. of Sevier County, Tenn., being the land I bought of J.N. Connatser and is bounded by lands of R.C. Loveday, Frank Sharp, and William Denton, which I value to my said two daughters at $ 500.00 as a part of the said $ 350.00, herein above provided for each of my said daughters, which will only leave a balance of $ 100.00 to be paid out of my estate to each of my two said daughters herein above named, out of the remainder of my estate, after they get the said piece of land; in case my personal property shall be insufficient to pay all my just debts and funeral expenses, and expenses of winding up my said estate, and said special bequests of $ 100.00 to each of my said daughters above named, I hereby authorize, empower, and direct my executor hereinafter named, or any one legally executing this will, to sell off a sufficient number of acres of my home farm, from the south west corner of the south side of my said farm, adjoining lands of Stuart M. Connatser on the west; Levator Connatser's land being south, and A.R. Connatser's being on the east; to pay said debts, expenses and bequests.

The said sale to be made at auction, after having advertised at five public places by written posters only, and on a credit of one and two years time, notes bearing interest from date with approved personal security shall be required of the purchaser, and a lien shall be retained on the land sold to secure the payment of the purchase money. My said Executor, or representative is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to make, execute and deliver to said purchaser a good and sufficient deed conveying to him title to said land so sold. But if my said two daughters herein above named, desire to do so, they may select and have cut off to each of them enough land from the said south side of my home farm at $ 15.00 per acre, to make the value of $ 100.00 to each of my said daughters, which shall be in lieu of the said $ 100.00, herein above bequeathed to each of my said daughters.

Fourth: I give and devise to my son Charles W. Connatser my said home farm, where I now live in the 4 Civil Dist. of Sevier County Tenn, being adjoined by lands S.M. Connatser, ^{J.M. Connatser} A.R. Connatser Robert Loveday, being about 136 acres, which I devise, subject to the provisions of this will herein above made.

Fifth: I have heretofore give to each and all of my other children, who are not named in this will, all of my estate that I desire them to have.

WILL OF A.J. BIRD. DECEASED.

I, A.J. Bird of Eldee, Sevier County Tennessee, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, hereby make and declare this my last will and testament.

I will, bequeath and devise my real and personal property in the manner following, to wit:

I will, bequeath and devise all of my land, being a farm of 145 acres, lying on the Little East Fork of Little Pigeon River, and all my personal property, and stock in the Sevier County Bank, cash on deposit, notes and all accounts collectable, to my wife C.A. Bird, for and during her natural life. I direct that my doctor bills and my funeral expenses, including a coffin and tombstones, that are not very expensive be paid out of any money I may have on hands, or in the bank at my death, but I do not want any clothing bought for my burial, just some of the best I may have on hands, is what I want and direct to be used.

I will nothing to my own blood relations, but I will and direct that my wife C.A. Bird have all of my property, and have full control of the same as herein directed, or any other property that may accumulate or may hereafter be collected, to be her own, and for her own full use as she may desire, without the appointment of an Executor, or any years support, homestead or dower being laid off.

And if my wife C.A. Bird should see fit to take her sister, N.L. Wilson, in the house or on the farm with her, after my death, I hereby express the desire or willingness to the same, if it shall be agreeable with them to do so.

I give and devise my land and whatever personal property may remain after the death of my wife, and the payment of doctor bills and burial expenses, to J.B. Catlett of Idaho, and Ellen M. Caughron of Knoxville Tennessee, or the heirs of their bodies, one half to J.B. Catlett and the other half to Ellen M. Caughron. If J.B. Catlett should die leaving no bodily heirs, then the one half herein willed to him, to go to Ellen M. Caughron and her bodily heirs.

It is my will and I request that the said devisees keep said land together by such arrangements as they may be able to make, that some one or two of the parties or heirs herein mentioned pay to

First. It is my will, and I direct that as soon after my death as may be practicable, that all of my just debts if there be any and my funeral expenses shall be paid out of my personal estate by the Executor of this will.

Second. I will and bequeath to my son David L. Huffaker all of my real estate, which consists of the farm where I now reside in the 7th Civil District of Sevier County Tennessee on the waters of Kellems creek and adjoining the lands of W.D. Atchley on the east, Jesse Stafford and James Maples on the south, John Murrell on the west, and James Maples and G.P. Huffaker on the north, containing 60 acres more or less, being the lands conveyed to me by James Maples by deed which is registered in the Register's office in Sevier County Tennessee.

And in consideration of the land herein willed to David L. Huffaker he shall pay to each of my children, to wit: George P. Huffaker, John R. Huffaker, Arthur Huffaker, Carrie Sims, J.P. Huffaker and Minnie Henderson one hundred dollars, which shall be due and payable within eight months after my death, and should any of said children die before my decease, then the amount due them under this will shall be paid to their children.

Third. All the personal property on hands at my death, including money, notes, house-hold and kitchen furniture &c, I bequeath to all of my children equally, and I direct that the same be divided by them in kind among themselves, without a sale thereof, and should any of my children die before said division is made, then their share shall go to their children

I hereby appoint my sons George P. Huffaker and David L. Huffaker Executor of this will to make distribution and carry out the will as directed and said executors may act without bond.

Given under my hand and seal on this 28th day of March, 1910.

Samuel Huffaker, Seal.

The foregoing will was signed and executed by Samuel Huffaker, the testator in our presence, who declared the same to be his last will and testament and that we, the subscribing witnesses signed same in his presence and in the presence of each other, on this March 28, 1910.

A. T. Marshall,

J. J. Stafford.

Codicil.

I, Samuel Huffaker do this day make the following statement and addition to the foregoing will, to wit: I made signed and executed the foregoing as my last will and testament on the day it bears date I made same voluntarily and understandingly, and uninfluenced by any one, and I was of sound mind and disposing memory at the time when same was executed, and the foregoing will carries out my purposes and intentions as I honestly believed then and now believe is right, and I now state after due consideration and reflection that the foregoing is my true and last will and testament.

I now direct and will that if any of my children or heirs shall undertake to break this will or bring a law suit for the purpose of changing or setting aside this will that they or either of them so doing shall forfeit all their right to that which I have herein bequeathed to them, and they shall take no part in my estate, and the interest of the heir of heirs that may so try to break this will shall be paid equally to the other heirs.

Signed on this 26th day of October 1912.
