 State of Tennessee? Pursuant to a warrant to us Smith County directed from the Clerk of the Court of said County at the September Term 1808 appointing Henry Tooley Basil Shaw and John L. Martin esquires acting Justices of the said County as commissioners to attend the viewing of a location of 2560 acres originally entered in the name of Pilot Cook but now claimed by Amosiah Stubbfield and others to take the Disposition of John L. Martin and Jacob Myles relative to the specialities of said location agreeably to the Act of Assembly in that case made and provided we have attended on the premises at a certain place said to be the beginning of the aforesaid location marked with the letters M M at the mouth of a Branch on the east side of the Caney fork

John L. Martin being duly sworn deposed and said that in August in the year 1785 he (Martin) together with Jacob Myles came up the Caney fork in a canoe and at the mouth of this branch where we now are he and Myles marked a maple tree with the letters M M that he went further up the Caney fork to the mouth of Collins River (as we suppose) and about two days afterwards he returned down the Caney fork and at the maple which he marked he discovered some indian sign as he supposed and at that time to the best of his recollection he marked an elm tree which now stands at this place with the letters M M which marks we made for a speciality of a location in the name of Pilot Cook which location he returned to the entry takers office and signed his name to it for Martin Armstrong
