bless me in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in following manner and form - I give, sell, assign and bequeath unto my true and lawful sons, James Brown, twenty five acres of land each, lying in Smith County, State of Tennessee, upon the waters of Smith's fork, the place whereon I now live, then I also give and bequeath unto the child my wife is now bearing, with eighty three acres and more, more or less of the same tract of land, that I now own, provided it be a son, if it be a girl, then for it to be equally and equally divided among my Daughters - Then I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Sally Brown all the profits arising from all my land for the support of herself and my Children until they are come of age provided she do not make waste of the property, But if she does make waste of the property then for Nathaniel Farmer and John Allen to take it from her and put it to the best use they can for the support of the Children until they are come of age But if my wife gets married then for her to have one third of the land and marable property during her life, and then for it to go to the Children Then, all my marable property to be sold to pay all lawful demands that may come against the estate, and for the use of my family - Then I appoint Nathaniel Farmer and John Allen Whole and Sole Executors of this last will and Testament, I do hereby declare and confirm this my last
