William Fraundale's Will

In the name of God amen, I William Fraundale of the State of Tennessee, and County of Smith, being in a lawful state of body, (but as I think) blessed with my common sense and recollection, and knowing it is appointed to man and to die, revoking all other wills, by me heretofore made, do make constitute and appoint this to be my last will and testament. Viz, I commit my soul to god who gave it- and my body to entomb at the discretion of my friends - To my beloved wife Sally Fraundale I give the use of my plantation, farming utensils, kitchen furniture, also two horse teams, (her choice), two cows and calves, her choice, twenty head of hogs, her choice, the stock of sheep, the stock of swine and hens, also the depending crop, and my negro boy Sam, during her natural life or marriage, these things I leave in her hands for her own support, and that of raising the children which should be her consolation for that trouble, my will further is that my wife Womara Clary should be bound until my youngest child becomes fourteen years of age, and that Clarys son Isaac be kept in the family for the use of the same until said term, and that all the other property not reserved for my wife be sold, and the money arising from said sale, and in any more pertaining to the estate be loaned, out until my youngest child be fourteen years old as aforesaid. At which period I desire that all the property and money in anywise appertain-ing to the estate should be equally divided among my children, except the part before reserved for my wife, my will is further, provided the land should be lost, and my wife should remain single, that my Executors should purchase a piece of land for her support and that of raising the children, with any money or property belonging to the estate, as they may judge the most expedient, my will further is that all the property in the hands of my wife should be equally divided among my children at her death, by sale or otherwise as the case may require, Now I hope, should she marry my will is that the property in her possession, and all the property and money in anywise appertaining to the estate, should be equally divided between her, and my children, viz between my wife Mary Fraundale, my son John Fraundale my son James Fraundale, my daughter Betty Smith Fraundale, my daughter Sally Fraundale, and my daughter Ann Fraundale, - and my will is that the children and my should be bound out, until the youngest becomes fourteen years of age as aforesaid, at which term I desire an equal and final division to take place among my children, unless my Executors, should think it expedient out, to visit any of them, with their portion sooner and lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my two lawful friends are present, John Brandt and
