William Andersons Will

(Returned August Term 1831)

In the name of God Amen. I William Anderson of the state of Virginia and County of Stewart. Being weak of body but of sound and perfect mind and memory. Blesed be the Almighty God for the same. Do publish this my last Will and Testament. In form and manner as follow to wit, First I give and bequeath unto my three youngest children. William, Mary and James Anderson. To each of them a good feather bed and furniture, and beasted, one sow and calf. one horse and saddle to be worth fifty dollars, also sixty dollars in money. To each of them all of which they are to receive when they marry or become of age. I give my Daughter Rebecca McGee to have fifty dollars in money after my death.
I further wish the four children of my daughter Mary Curtis deceased. To have fifty dollars in money. To be equally divided between them. I give and bequeath unto my beloved Wife Elizabeth Anderson all the remaining part of my real Estate. Goods and chattels of whatsover kind or nature. During her natural life time or widowhood. But if she should marry. I wish for her to have a proportionable part with my three youngest children above named. And the remaining parts of the perishable property left to her to be equally divided with her and Rebecca McGee. William Anderson. Mary Anderson. James Anderson and the children of my daughter Mary Curtis deceased. But if my Wife should never marry. I wish after her death. For an equal division with all the above named heirs in all the remaining parts of the personal Estate left to her.
I also wish after the death of my Wife, for my land to be equally divided between my two sons William and James Anderson. I wish my Negro girl Lydia to be sold as soon as convenient. I further wish that part of my estate left to the children of my daughter Mary Curtis deceased. To run on in the hands of my Executors or Executrix until they marry, or become of age.
Lastly I appoint my beloved Wife Elizabeth Anderson, Executrix of this my last Will and Testament. In Witness Whereof. I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the fourth day of April. in the year of our Lord
