David Brigham's Will

Believing that is appointed by God, for all men once to die, I David Brigham of the County of Stewart and State of Tennessee do make and ordain the following as my last Will and Testament

First, I give and bequeath to my beloved Wife Elizabeth during her natural life, my two Negroes (Slaves) James and Bloe, I also give her, one half the tract of land, on which I live, with one half the improvements. The land estimated at two hundred & fifty two acres, after the division which is intended to be made, in the latter part of this my last Will and Testament. Intending to bequeath to the Heirs of my Daughter Lucinda Browder, Two hundred acres of the tract on which I now live, and the boundaries of which have not yet been designated by me, I also give and bequeath, to my beloved Wife Elizabeth one half of all my stock of all kind as well as one half of all my every thing, say notes, accounts, and every thing else, which may appertain to me, during her natural life, and no longer. I give and bequeath to my Daughter Louisa Browder, one bro and half. Having given heretofore as I think at least her proportionable part of my Estate

I give and bequeath to my son Willie B. Brigham one Negro Woman Bloe at the death of my beloved Wife Elizabeth and desire him to appropriate her accc with every thing that may arise from her to the benefit of the Heirs of my Daughter Louisa

I give and bequeath to my son James Marry Brigham the land sold to William James, and the right and title to the stock &c. hitherto furnished him. Having heretofore given him six hundred dollars in cash, and an interest of seven hundred dollars in land which was conveyed to William James. I also give him at the death of my Wife a Negro Boy George, now about three years old, with all the Community on the old and New Testament

I give and bequeath to my Daughter Lucinda Browder, one Negro Girl Rose with the stock heretofore delivered to her.

I give and bequeath to my son Willie B. Brigham a part of the tract of land on which I now live estimated at two hundred acres. Beginning on Thomas Norworthy's West boundary line on the North bank of Whiteoak Creek, running with said creek one hundred rods West, then running South to my Southern line, then East one hundred rods, then North to the beginning, with a request, that the profits of said land may be appropriated by my son Willie B. Brigham, to the Heirs of my Daughter Lucinda

I give and bequeath unto my son Willie B. Brigham a Negro man Fanny with one half of the stock, of each and every description together with all my land heretofore undivided and that which is devised to my beloved Wife during her natural life, being the land and the parts of it on which I now reside, I also give him at death of my Wife, a Negro man Jim also at his death, I wish him to have all my household and kitchen furniture, together with every thing else of which he may or may not possess.

I give and bequeath to my Daughter Elizabeth Norworthy one Negro Girl Jane also the title to two hundred acres of land heretofore conveyed, with all and every thing else is in possession of, formerly belonging to me.
