Will of John F. Weeks Deceased.

In the name of God, Amen! I, John F. Weeks of the County of Stewart in the State of Tennessee being sick and weak in body but of sound mind memory and understanding thanks to the Almightly God for the same do make this my last will and testament in writing in manner following that I do say, After my funeral expenses and just debts shall have been paid as soon as possible after my decease by my executors hereinafter named, I give devise and bequeath the rest of my property real and personal as follows, First I do give and bequeath to my wife all my Kitchen and household furniture, the Negro woman Charlotte and the Negro boy Sam, the two Horses known by the name of Sam and Polly and all the hogs and sheep now on the plantation together with a cart and a pile of Shingles to have and to hold the same to my said wife during the term of her natural life as well for her own maintenance and support as for the maintaining and bringing up of my children secondly, I give devise and bequeath to my said wife the farm on which I now reside together with the buildings thereon erected and all my farming utensils, to have and to hold the same to my said wife for and during the term of her natural life to and for the same purposes as my first bequest, Thirdly I give devise and bequeath to my son William the Negro boy George, should he recover from his present sickness and in case of his death, then I give and bequeath to my said son William the Negro boy Buckner, Fourthly I give devise and bequeath to my son the Negro boy named Samuel, Fifthly, I give devise and bequeath to my son Henry, the Negro boy George, Sixthly, I give devise and bequeath to

To my daughter Mary Caroline the Negro girl Mary and one hundred dollars on her coming of age. Fourthly, I give devise and bequeath to my daughter Elizabeth Parson the Negro boy called Jacob. Eighthly, I give devise and bequeath to my daughter Polly Jane the Negro woman named Harriet. Ninthly, Should it happen that the said Negro boy George recovers from his present sickness then I give devise and bequeath the said Negro boy Pinckney to my three youngest children share and share alike. Tenthly, I give devise and bequeath all my real Estate not herein otherwise disposed of and the said farm on which I now reside (after my wife's death) to my children above named and to their heirs and assigns share and share alike and as to the residue of my personal property I desire my executors hereinafter named to dispose of the same to the best advantage and after paying them out my just debts funeral and other expenses to place the balance out at interest and pay over the same in equal shares to my children as they severally come of age. And lastly, I do hereby appoint & assent to Ingram Executors and my life Executors of this my last will and Testament hereby revoking and annulling all former and other wills by me at any time heretofore made. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fifth day of March 1834.
