7th I authorize and empower H. C. Wood to sell my interest in the Ford farm together with his, at any time he thinks advisable, and to place the money at interest, or re-invest the same in real estate.

7th The money arising from the rents of the three estates, after paying insurance, taxes and repairs, shall be divided equally between the children semi-annually.

8th It is my desire that the Nickels House saloon shall be run by some competent person for the benefit of my children and not be leased to any person until five years shall have expired.

9th That should my children be saving and careful of their money and amass a sufficient amount to rebuild the Nickels House in five years or less, build it torn down and rebuilt and to be called the "Nickels House" forever.
