

Last Will and Testament

Francis Coleman Died.

I Francis Coleman being advised of the uncertainty of human life and being desirous to arrange my temporal affairs and being of sound mind and disposing memory do publish make & declare this to be my last will and testament truly revoking and making void all former wills by me at any time made.

First. I desire & it is my will that after my demise all my just debts and my funeral expenses be first paid out of any money that I may die possessed of or that may first come to the hands of my Executor or Representative.

Second. It is my desire and I so will that my wife Sarah Coleman shall have and hold all my last that I may die seized and possessed of during her life and it shall be so held by her to the intent that she may be able to keep up the family that will be left under her care.

Third. It is my will that my said wife shall have & hold for her use & for the family all my personal property of my kind consisting of household & kitchen effects, farming implements, stock of every kind, all money on hand, all notes & accounts that may be due me at the time of my demise. It is my desire & will that my said wife Sarah Coleman shall have all the fore mentioned personal property for her use & the use of the family so much as may be necessary to to pay all my just debts, my funeral expenses, and the expenses necessary to the recording & administering this my will.

Fourth. It is my will that after the death of my wife Sarah Coleman the lands that I may die seized & possessed of & which is set apart to her during her life shall be sold and the proceeds of the sale shall be equally divided with my children making no distinction lastly. I hereby appoint John J. Chesby my Executor of this my will.

In witness whereof I here to set my hand and seal, This 23rd day of September 1884 Francis Coleman (seal)

John H. Thomas Decd.

In the name of God Amen

I John H. Thomas of Sullivan county Tennessee do make ordain & establish this as my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all former Wills by me at any time made.

First I give my soul to God to be disposed of according to his pleasure. Touching the property with which God has been pleased to bless me I dispose of it as follows.
First I require my Executors hereinafter named to have my remains buried in a decent & christian like manner.

Second I will & direct that my Executors pay my funeral expenses & my debts out of any money I may have on hand at the time of my death or if there is not a sufficient amount for that purpose then out of the first money that may come into their hands from any sale of my property or that they may collect out of the debts due me.

Third I give devise & bequeath all my estate (except as herein after provided) to the following named persons (to wit) To the children of my deceased brother Jacob Thomas one fifth of all my estate after the payment of all my debts funeral expenses & the costs of settling up my estate.
