

it and pay the money to her for her support.

8 Lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint W. B. Carroll my Executor and I do not require him to give bond in witness whereof I do to this my Will set my hand and seal this 8th day of March, 1892.

Attest:

James F. Carroll
G. W. Slaughter

J. W. S. S. (Seal)

Proven in open Court by the Oaths of James F. Carroll & G. W. Slaughter, subscribing witnesses to said will on the 4th day of April, 1892.

W. D. Bachman, Clerk.
By L. H. Denny, D. C.

Last Will + Testament of Mary Conkin, dec'd

I, Mary Conkin being of sound mind and memory do make this my last will and testament.

First I will that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid, out of any money I may have on hand at my death, if there is not a sufficient amount, then I will that sd debts and funeral expenses be paid out of the personal property I may have.

Secondly I will and bequeath to my two sons Thomas Conkin and John Conkin all of the two tracts of land whereon we now live and which two tracts consisting of about forty (40) Acres, together one - amounting to about eighty (80) Acres adjoining the lands of Charles Duncan Joseph Overby G. M. Murrell M. C. Mclear and Peter Duncan.

I will thirdly that my two sons Thomas & John Conkin each pay to my daughters viz Sarah M. Clain, Nancy Hickman, Amanda White, Adeline White, Emma White, seven dollars and a half making together fifteen (15) dollars to each of my sd daughters that the two boys shall pay them, and my two sons shall have two years within which to pay the fifteen dollars to each of my five daughters after my death.

I will fourthly that all the residue of my personal property be equally divided between all of my children. I do hereby appoint J. M. Mclear to execute this my last will.

This 17th of December 1890

Mary Conkin

Attest
G. M. Murrell
J. M. Mclear.

Proven in open Court by the Oath of J. M. Mclear April 4th 1892, and by the Oath of G. M. Murrell May 2, 1892, the subscribing witnesses to said instrument, and thereupon said paper writing was adjudged, decreed and declared by the Court to be the last will and testament of the said Mary Conkin, deceased, and ordered to be recorded in the book of wills as such. This May 2, 1892.

A. D. Bachman, Clerk
By L. H. Denny, D. C.

Last will + Testament

Andrew W. Bookes dec'd. Probated July term 1892

I know all persons by these presents that I Andrew W. Bookes, being of sound mind and of mature age and knowing the certainty of death and being possessed of some of this world's goods and feel disposed to bequeath them in the following manner.

In the first place I give to my son Thomas M. Bookes all the lands on north side of Holston river, except the land known as the Mat Blivins land, which I give to my Grand son Andrew J. Bookes, and I will that my son Thomas M. Bookes shall pay to my daughter Maggy Blivins the sum of fifty dollars at the death of myself and wife.

I give to my son Peter W. Bookes all the lands I have on South side of Holston river except a undivided entry which I give to my Grand son Joseph A. Bookes.

I also will that my son Peter W. Bookes pay my daughter Maggy Blivins the sum of fifty dollars after the death of myself and wife.

I also will that the said lands as heretofore wills shall at the death of said Thomas M. Bookes and Peter W. Bookes shall respectfully be divided equally among their children.

I give to my wife Catharine all of my household furniture, all my stock to have and to hold forever and dispose of same as she wishes, except I will that my Grand son Davis Bookes have one colt, the offspring of my stock, as is heretofore wills to my wife. In conclusion and lastly I will that my son