Codicil to above Will

Sullivan County - Tennessee, August The 9. 1867.

I meditating about my Will, looking at the distance of my son Wilson G. Barker and his crowd of business, and then looking to the situation and business of my son, James M. Barker, I believe that they would not want to divide up my estate - neither do I think that it would suit them. Then on this consideration.

I appoint my friend William Hallenax, my administrator, to settle after my death, all of my unsettled business, as I believe him to be not only an honest man, but fully competent. And to release both of my sons, and I make this a Codicil or a Supplement to my Will.

Given under my hand and seal in the presence of the undersigned witnesses this August the 9. 1868.

D. F. Johnson.
