Last Will and Testament

of
D. E. Bushong Deed
Probated Jan'y term 1896

In the name of God amen, I David E. Bushong being sound in mind but feeble and failing bodily age in view of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death do make publish and declare this to be my last will and testament.

1st I will my soul to God who gave it and commit my body to the ground from which it was taken.

2nd That after my funeral expenses and lawful debts are all paid, I will and bequeath unto my beloved wife Mary E. Bushong all of my real and personal estate to hold and to have full control during her natural life.

3rd After the death of my beloved wife Mary E. Bushong, I will and bequeath to each of my beloved children then living an equal share of the estate then remaining, except in case that some one or more of my children should furnish money or means to pay off the judgments noted against my estate, then they are to be proportioned according to the amounts paid by cash out of the proceeds of the estate.

Whereunto I have subscribed my name on this 31st day of Oct 1895

D. E. Bushong.

Last Will & Testament } Foreign Will
of
M. B. Tate

I Mitchell B. Tate, of the County of Smith, and State of Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and ordain this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me whatsoever made.

I devise to my beloved wife, Amelia Tate, during her life that part of my home place including the dwelling house which I purchased of S. D. Sanders and his children, of John Harris, of Robert Jackson, of Joe McBrady, of Gannaway here, and of Robert S. Benham, containing about one thousand acres or more.

I bequeath to my wife, Amelia Tate also five thousand dollars in money to be paid to her by my Executors, herein after named, at once if possible, but if not, as soon as convenient; this sum to be paid out of the funds of the firm of Robinson, Tate & Co., as soon after my death as possible.

I also bequeath to my wife, Amelia Tate one thousand dollars in value of such stock as is on the farm place at my death, such as horses, cattle, etc., as she may desire to keep, the said stock to be selected by her.

I also devise and bequeath to her my interest in the Pierce furnace property in Wight County, including
