Last Will & Testament

Mary G. Childress dec'd. Probated July Term 1894

In the name of God amen.
I Mary G. Childress wife of Moses Childress being of sound and disposing mind and memory do make this my last will & testament hereby revoking & making void any former wills by me made at any time.
First. I give my soul to God to be disposed of according to his good pleasure.

As to the worldly goods with which it has pleased God to bless me I dispose of them in the following manner.

I give bequeath and devise to my husband Moses Childress all of my personal property of every kind and description.

Second. I also give to my said husband all of my real estate, which is situated in Bristol, Sullivan County, Tennessee and is composed of two houses and lots, one of which is the house and lot in which we now live adjoining the Presbyterian lot on 5th Street. The other is the lot on fourth street in which lot R. A. Wood now lives. This lot also adjoins the lot in which the first Presbyterian Church is situated. Both these lots, given devised & bequeathed to my husband Moses Childers & each other. The object and intention of this my last will and Testament being to give, bequeath and devise to my said husband Moses Childers all of my property both real and personal as an absolute gift to do with as he chooses for me.

I require my Executor herein after named, to pay all my just debts & funeral expenses (if any debts I am)

I hereby nominate & constitute Moses Childers my husband, my Executor of this my last will and Testament & request the County Court of Sullivan County not to require him to give security as such. In testimony whereof I the said Mary G. Childers have hereunto set my hand this the 26th day of April 1888.

Last will & Testament

N. Gregg, deceased.

Probated July term 1894

In the name of God amen.

I Nathan Gregg, a citizen of Sullivan County, Tennessee, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, but in feeble health, do hereby make, ordain and establish this as my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made.

First. I give my soul to God to dispose of according to his good pleasure.

Second. I require my Executor herein after named to have me buried in a decent and Christian-like manner.

Third. I require my Executor as soon after my death as is practicable to pay all my just debts and funeral expenses out of any money that I may have on hand at that time or that he may collect first after he qualifies as my executor, and after the payment of said debts to put the funds remaining in his hands at interest.

As to the property, debts and effects which it has pleased God to bless me, I dispose of them in the following manner:

1st I give to my niece Jennett Gregg, daughter of my brother Edward Gregg, a house and lot which I own in the town of Dalton, Ga. which I purchased from a man by the name of Webb. (not having the deed to the same present, I can not accurately describe said property) and is the only house and lot I own in said town of Dalton, and it is given devised and bequeathed to my said niece.

2nd I give to my Executor herein after ^{to be} named in trust for the benefit of my beloved wife, Catherine Gregg, all of the rents issues and profits of my farm on which I have lived and now reside situated in the 20th civil district of Sullivan County, Tennessee, during her natural life. I also give and bequeath to my said Executor in trust for the benefit of my wife, during her natural life all of my stock, farming implements, grain and household and kitchen furniture - in fact every thing that may
