Last will & Testament of Robert Hamilton Probated August term 1887
 R. B. Hamilton Deceased

In the name of God Amen.

I Robert Hamilton of Sullivan County, Tennessee, being of sound and disposing mind and body, do make this to be my last will and testament as follows: (that is to say) I desire that my body may be buried at the direction of my Executors, hereinafter named, and I direct that all my just debts be paid out of my estate as soon after my decease as may be convenient.

First. I give and bequeath unto my wife Mary Jane Hamilton in testimony of my sincere regard ^{and} affection for her my house and lot in the town of Bristol, with all the improvements thereon for her own absolute use and benefit. And I do also give and bequeath to her for her own absolute use and benefit all the money that I may have on hand or that may be due me, together with all the household furniture, linen, jewels and plate, which may be in my house at the time of my decease, and also the lease thereof by which I hold and occupy the same with the appurtenances. And should I accumulate any more real-estate or other property, the same shall be inherited as the above named, that is by my wife during her life. And from and ^{after} her death I give and the same to my niece Miss Lu Hamilton, daughter of Henry Hamilton, and Miss Sarah J. V. Horn daughter of Augustus Horn - or their heirs forever, and give all the moneys which shall be due & owing to me at my death, for the aforesaid property herein before given to my dear wife for her life, and after her death to ^{my niece} Miss Lu Hamilton and Miss Sarah J. V. Horn or their heirs.

And I do hereby nominate and appoint my wife Mary Jane Hamilton to be my Executor of this my last will and testament. And I do hereby revoke and make void all former and other will and wits by me at any time or times heretofore made, and do hereby declare these presents to be and contain my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I the said testator Robert Hamilton have to this my last will set my hand and seal this 22^d day of March in the year 1883.

Last will & testament of Samiah Massingill Probated August term 1887
 Samiah Massingill Deceased

I Samiah Massingill do make and publish this as my last will and testament: First. I direct that my funeral expenses and all my debts be paid as hereinafter directed.

Secondly. I give and bequeath to my son W. A. Massingill all my land that I am seized and possessed of, together with all the hereditaments and appurtenances therunto belonging or in any wise appertaining. To have and to hold the premises to the said W. A. Massingill, his heirs and assigns forever.

Third. I give and bequeath to my two daughters, Lucinda and Susan one hundred and twenty five dollars each to be paid to them by my son named above, and he shall have two years to pay the same in, after my estate is wound up, without interest. And also I give and bequeath to my daughter Sarah, sixty two dollars and fifty cents, to be paid to her by my son named above, and he shall have two years to pay the same in, after my estate is wound up, without interest. I also direct my son named above to take good care of and provide well for my daughter Evaline, during her natural life or edification. And also I direct my Executor to pay out of my personal estate
