Last Will & Testament } Probated Aug. Term, 1898.

Sampson P. Cross Dec^r 3^d } I, Sampson P. Cross, being in feeble health, but of sound mind and disposing memory, and being desirous of making such a disposition of my property as I deem just and equitable among my children, do hereby make and publish this as my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills heretofore made by me.

First - It is my will and desire that my personal property, consisting of household and kitchen furniture be disposed of as follows, to wit: My daughter, Martha, is to have my clock & 2 chairs, My daughter, Susan is to have my cooking stove, my son William is to have my bed & 2 chairs, and my daughter Lydia is to have my fall-leaf table and my two chairs - this being the only personal property owned by me.

Second - It is my will and desire that my Executor, hereinafter named, sell all the real estate of which I may be possessed at the time of my death, as soon after my death as practicable and out of the proceeds, pay, first, all my funeral expenses, Second, all my just debts, and the remainder, if there be any, he will divide equally among my four Children named in the first Paragraph of this instrument

Third - I hereby nominate and appoint my brother, Jesse P. Cross, Executor of this my last will and testament - Witness my signature, this 12 day of June, 1895.
