

interest negroes Fred, Geo, Lucinda and her children with the income of the female, which I leave ^{through} to my deceased son A. S. McCallan. I also give and bequeath to my sons William & Geo. S. McCallan all the rest and residue of my property of every kind nature and description, whatever, whether in possession or coming to me from A. S. McCallan's estate or from any other source after the payment of my just debts, which I direct to be paid out of my personal estate if sufficient, I revoke the legacy given in my will to my son Geo.
 S. McCallan for satisfactory reasons to myself. I revoke the legacy given in my will to David McCallan deceased, there are accounts standing upon my books my deceased son David McCallan and against George S. McCallan both of which I wish collected if they make no claim against my estate, and upon the same contingency I give to David McCallan's children a note I hold against David McCallan & Messrs. Ford for two hundred and fifty dollars, with interest on the same for some time. I revoke and annul a codicil I made to my will the 1st day of April 1852, written by J. W. Carmist, & witnessed by John W. Cox, R. R. R. & J. W. Carmist, In witness whereof I have set my hand and seal this August 19th 1852. A. McCallan, Geo. S.

Signed, sealed, published and declared in our presence and we in the presence of each other and in the presence of the Testator and at his request have here to subscribed, one Thomas as witness.

Will of Thomson & Sulangy.

I Thomson Elizabeth Sulangy being of sound mind do now perceive to make my last will and Testament hereby revoking & making null and void all wills heretofore by me made first - it is my will that as soon after my death as practicable my funeral expenses and all other just debts but I am shall be paid out of any money that I may have on hand at that time and out of the first that may come into the hands of my Executor. Having entire confidence in Elanah Harard I do hereby appoint him my Executor to carry out my wishes in this will and I desire that the exec will exact but very light account of him. I give and bequeath to Brannan Harard the son of Peggy Harard one good bed bedstead and bed clothing. I give and bequeath to Elanah and to Peggy Harard and to Brannan Harard each an equal share of money or money claims - c. notes that I may die seized and possessed of. I make this will to some trouble, and now put my hand and seal to it this 12 day of Jan 1855.

Will of Abraham McCallan.

I Abraham McCallan of Sullivan County State of Tennessee being advanced in years and knowing the uncertainty of life and fully that it is my duty to settle my worldly affairs while in good health and sound memory do hereby make & publish this my last will and Testament hereby revoking any and all wills by me at any time heretofore made, First I direct that my body be buried in a plain and unob-tentionable manner, and that my Executor place at my grave tomb stones to mark out where my remains repose, and as soon after my death as practicable my will and disire is that my Executor pay my funeral expenses and all my just debts out of any money that I may die seized and possessed of, or that may come into his hands from the sale of property hereafter described. To my beloved wife Mary I will and bequeath a good Buggy horse not to be worth less than eighty dollars, my buggy, two bed and bedstead with the necessary clothing & furniture for the same, one small glass the sofa and carpets, she brought to my house after we were married a set of silver tea and table spoons which she also brought to my house after we were married one pair of brass dog bones and four pair, powder which I now have on hand for my wife saddle and bridle and also my wife I also received through my wife Mary, out of the proceeds the proceeds of property so belonging to my wife at the time of our marriage about twenty two hundred dollars, which said sum of money I loaned out once thousand dollars is loaned out to J. W. Carmist, and others, under hundred dollars of said sum of twenty hundred dollars to John W. Cox and sum of money I loaned out to go to my children, but as I desired the same through my wife my will and desire is that my wife Mary pay said sum of twenty two hundred dollars together with the above described property, absolutely but in the event that said sum of twenty hundred dollars be lost by bad management or the same in any part thereof be disposed of by my wife during my life, or should I survive her and she should dispose of said fund by my consent then and in that event my estate shall not be held responsible for the payment of said sum of twenty two hundred dollars in any part thereof should I survive my wife and die without making any disposition of the above property further than the above then then my will and desire is that the above fund or what may remain of it together with the above described property including the horse and buggy the two beds and clothing and sofa shall go to the children of my wife Mary, and in an event that my estate be held liable for said sum of twenty two hundred dollars but said fund above shall be locked too to settle this bequest. I will and bequeath to my sons William McCallan and Geo. S. McCallan and James S. McCallan and to their heirs and assigns forever the plantation upon which I at this time reside, situated in this County on Blount and White Top Creek supposed to contain six hundred and fifty five acres share and share alike. I also will and bequeath my son William my family Bible and all my funeral papers except evidence of debt to my son A. S. McCallan I will my accountancy and pass also a share cow and calf of my best stock. Having advanced to my sons David and George S. McCallan land and improved as to the estate then equal in shares with me and the children now living.
