

Will of Elizabeth Pearce Died

In the name of God Amen. I Elizabeth Pearce now being nearly seven two years of age, and being conscious from the uncertainty of life, and from the rapid decline of my physical constitution, that I cannot live very much longer, do take advantage of the present opportunity while I am enjoying all the blessing of a sound and clear ing mind to make and execute this my last will and Testament hereby revoking annulling all other will that I may have heretofore made.

First I will and bequeath to my two daughters Elizabeth Poller and Barilla all of my house hold and kitchen furniture, consisting of four bed-stands bed clothing for each, two tables belonging to the household department, one Bureau, one large cupboard, some chairs, some ware belonging to the cupboard, one clock, some kitchen furniture, consisting of dishes, ovens, lids, &c, one large wheel, one small wheel, one reel, one loom, one butter and two cows, and two smaller cattle, one mare and colt the colt I have given to William Poller son of John Poller, and intend for him to keep him, four young hogs, and some chickens all of which I desire to be equally divided between my two daughters above mentioned until their several children come of age at which time I desire my two daughters aforesaid to divide said property among said several children as seemeth best to them making them as near equal as possible I have heretofore disposed of some of the property above mentioned viz The colt I have given to William Poller, the loom I have given to my daughter Barilla this is not mentioned in the above list viz. one colt which I have given to Samuel Poller son of Martin, one I have given to Martin Poller son of John (and one which I have sold to John Poller he having paid me for the same, and not to be regarded in this disposition, mention thereof being made by me that no difficulty may arise out the same hereafter) all of which said gifts I hereby confirm and desire them to remain in the manner disposed of by me not to be taken into consideration in the division and disposition of my property above mentioned between my two daughters, so as to make them share and share alike.

Secondly, I will and bequeath to my son Samuel my four ore stands with belonging to each said ore stands now being on the place where I now live.

Thirdly, If there should be any grain upon the place at my death, belonging to me I desire that the same shall be divided equally between my two daughters above mentioned.

I have heretofore given to my son Thomas one bed stand bed and for same which is not mentioned in the above list of property, also one other bed bed and clothing for same to my grand daughter Elizabeth Jones, which has not mentioned aforesaid both of which said gifts I hereby confirm and desire them remain as I have disposed of them, Fourthly, All monies that may belong to me at my death, or that may be to me at that time or to my Estate afterwards, from suits or otherwise after off all demands against me, as well as satisfying my son Samuel, debts and expenses heretofore incurred by him on my behalf out of

to be divided equally between my two daughters above mentioned.

Fifthly Any other property that may belong to me at my death and which has not been disposed of by me I desire to be divided equally between my two daughters above mentioned. And now that I have made such a disposition of my property as I desire I hereby appoint my son Samuel to act as my Executor and earnestly hope that none of my children will make this disposition a matter of contention, but that they may live in peace and harmony with each one.

In Testimony whereof I have set my hand and affix my seal This the thirty
