Will of Eli Warren

I Eli Warren being of sound perfect mind and memory do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following.

First I will and bequeath to my wife Agnes Warren all the lands that I now own and possess to hold and possess as her own as long as she remains my widow together with all my farming utensils of every kind and description also all my stock of horses cattle dogs and sheep together with my household and kitchen furniture except silver plate and house hold property as I intend to bequeath to my children to be mentioned hereafter. I also will and desire that she should have the management of the increase of the stock and product of the farm to be taken care of by her for the use of the family. secondly, I will that at her death the land shall be equally divided between my three children Elizabeth William and Bartholomew - the division of the land to be made so as to be equal in value and number of acres as the nature of the case will admit of.
 to be laid out by three free holders, that are not interested of this county who are to be chosen by the said heirs if any of the children should die before my wife should and come no issue then and in case the land shall be divided between those that are living at her death. Thirdly, should my wife die before the children all acres of age then the land to be divided as above stated and Guardian appointed for the minors until they arrive at the age of twenty one. Fourthly, I will that my son William shall have the ferry toll to be his own property to keep or dispose of as he pleases, and Elizabeth and Bartholomew shall have the cows that they now claim to be their own property to dispose of at pleasure.
 I also will that each one of my children shall have a good bed a piece with all necessary bed clothing.

Fifthly I appoint James J. Snuffly to be my Executor to collect all of my outstanding dues to settle up all my business and to pay all my out standing debts out of what is due me and if that should not be sufficient to pay all or in case he should fail to collect in time to satisfy the debts without a suit then he may take and sell any of my land or stock in the place that can be suited with to the best advantage to pay the said debt though not to interfere with the property set apart to any of my children and there should be a surplus of money over after paying all my debts and funeral expenses remaining in his hands he shall pay it over to my wife Agnes for the use of herself and family, and I also will that should any of my children marry a loan here before my wife should die then they shall have an equal share of all the personal at property on hand at the time of the marriage or leaving that is not herein set apart to the other heirs and the balance to be divided between the others, but should they all be at home yet and unmarried at her death then all the personal property shall be equally divided except that which was set apart and so. Signed sealed and published in our presence and we have subscribed our names here in the presence of the Scribe this 13th day of April 1837.
