

The foregoing will was proven in open Court by the oaths of J. P. Eusey & W. Ambrose subscribing witnesses to the same, on the 1st day of Feb'y 1892 and ordered to be recorded in the books of wills.

Test N. D. Bachman clerk.

Last will & Testament

Eliza Bushong decd.

Probatd Jan'y term 1892

I Eliza Bushong do make and publish this as my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any time made.

First. I direct that my funeral expenses and all my debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any money that I may die possessed of.

2nd. I give and bequeath to my son D. E. Bushong fifteen acres of land him when the buildings is, where we live including the meadow and the field where the house is and back towards Mackay till he gets his 15 acres, and also the land near Liberty, lying betw C. C. Smith and Edna Gallaway back to the branch that runs down from C. C. Smiths Spring to Edna Gallaways, to her corner betw his land and my farm, also on half of the ridge joining said lands that I have given the said D. E. Bushong, after the abov shares is taken out.

3rd. I give and bequeath to my daughter Mary E. Payson a tract of land commencing on Edna Gallaway corner near a walnut tree on the side of the road thence with her line to upper end of the peach orchard, including said orchard strait thence to the fence that goes up from the spring field to the woods, thence with said fence down to said road near the barn, thence with said road to the beginning.

4th. I give and bequeath to my son Jacob D. Bushong a tract of land lying joining A. J. Mackay the field that joins Mackay down with said Mackays line to his corner, thence strait to D. E. Bushongs line on top of the hill, also the field south of the spring, and on half of the ridge of timber that is not wild to the other heirs.

5th. I give and bequeath to my son James F. Bushong the tract of land where he lives, beginning on C. C. Smiths corner on Mackay line thence with said Smith line to the branch when D. E. Bushong corner, thence with said line of pole strait to the upper corner of the Mariah lot, thence to the top of said ridge with the fence, thence with said fence down the ridge to the corner of the meadow that he has now in his possession, thence with said fence so as to leave the spring on Jacob D. Bushongs share, down to the meadow fence joining D. E. Bushong, thence with said fence to Mackays corner, thence with Mackays line to the beginning.

6th. I also will and bequeath to my son D. E. Bushong as far as he gets his fifteen acres around the buildings that he has the remainder of the land if any to turn him and Jacob D. Bushong in the end of his land next Mackays.

In witness whereof I do to this my will set my hand and seal this the 21st Feb. 1891

Eliza Bushong (Seal)

Signed, sealed and published in our presence and we have subscribed our names hereto in the presence of the testator this the 21st day of Feb. 1891

N. C. Lader
C. C. Smith

Proven in open Court by the oaths of N. C. Lader & C. C. Smith subscribing witnesses to said instrument on this the 4th day of January 1892 and ordered to be recorded in the books of wills.

N. D. Bachman Clerk

My L. H. Denny D.C.

Last Will & Testament

I, John M. Plieson do make and publish this as my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any time made.

1st. I direct that my funeral expenses and all my debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any money that I may die possessed of, or may first come into the hands of my executor.

2nd. Secondly, I have given February the 25th 1892 to D. B. Blakely thirty seven and one quarter acres of my land on the upper end adjoining A. D. Sproles to have at our death.

3rd. Thirdly, I will & bequeath to my wife Emeline Plieson all my land and property to hold and control during her natural life and at her death I give it to D. B. Blakely provided the said Blakely stays and takes care of ours while we both live.

4th. Fourthly, if there is more property at my death than my wife Emeline Plieson needs to run the farm my executor is to sell it and pay the money to her for her support.

8 Lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint W. B. Carroll my Executor and I do not require him to give bond in witness whereof I do to this my Will set my hand and seal this 8th day of March, 1892.

Attest:

James F. Carroll
G. W. Slaughter

J. W. S. S. (Seal)

Proven in open Court by the Oaths of James F. Carroll & G. W. Slaughter, subscribing witnesses to said will on the 4th day of April, 1892.

W. D. Bachman, Clerk.
By L. H. Denny, D. C.

Last Will + Testament of I. Mary Conkin being of sound mind and memory do make this my last will and testament.

First I will that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid, out of any money I may have on hand at my death, if there is not a sufficient amount, then I will that sd debts and funeral expenses be paid out of the personal property I may have.

Secondly I will and bequeath to my two sons Thomas Conkin and John Conkin all of the two tracts of land whereon we now live and which two tracts consisting of about forty (40) Acres, together one - amounting to about eighty (80) Acres adjoining the lands of Charles Duncan Joseph Overby G. M. Murrell M. C. Mclear and Peter Duncan.

I will thirdly that my two sons Thomas & John Conkin each pay to my daughters viz Sarah M. Clain, Nancy Hickman, Amanda White, Adeline White, Emma White, Seven dollars and a half making together fifteen (15) dollars to each of my sd daughters that the two boys shall pay them, and my two sons shall have two years within which to pay the fifteen dollars to each of my five daughters after my death.

I will fourthly that all the residue of my personal property be equally divided between all of my children. I do hereby appoint J. M. Mclear to execute this my last will.

This 17th of December 1890

Mary Conkin
John Conkin

Attest
J. M. Murrell
J. M. Mclear.

Proven in open Court by the Oath of J. M. Mclear April 4th 1892, and by the Oath of G. M. Murrell May 2, 1892, the subscribing witnesses to said instrument, and thereupon said paper writing was adjudged, decreed and declared by the Court to be the last will and testament of the said Mary Conkin, deceased, and ordered to be recorded in the book of wills as such. This May 2, 1892.

A. D. Bachman, Clerk
By L. H. Denny, D. C.

Last will + Testament

Amaru W. Bookes decd. Probated July term 1892

I know all persons by these presents that I Amaru W. Bookes, being of sound mind and of mature age and knowing the certainty of death and being possessed of some of this world's goods and feel disposed to bequeath them in the following manner.

In the first place I give to my son Thomas M. Bookes all the lands on north side of Holston river, except the land known as the Mat Blivins land, which I give to my Grand son Amaru J. Bookes, and I will that my son Thomas M. Bookes shall pay to my daughter Maggy Blivins the sum of fifty dollars at the death of myself and wife.

I give to my son Peter W. Bookes all the lands I have on South side of Holston river except a undivided entry which I give to my Grand son Joseph A. Bookes.

I also will that my son Peter W. Bookes pay my daughter Maggy Blivins the sum of fifty dollars after the death of myself and wife.

I also will that the said lands as heretofore wills shall at the death of said Thomas M. Bookes and Peter W. Bookes shall respectfully be divided equally among their children.

I give to my wife Catharine all of my household furniture, all my stock to have and to hold forever and dispose of same as she wishes, except I will that my Grand son Davis Bookes have one colt, the offspring of my stock, as is heretofore wills to my wife.

In conclusion and lastly I will that my sons