

State of Tennessee Sullivan County

A. D. Mull, Susan L. Mull,

I leave all my property both real and personal to my dear beloved wife Isabella during her natural life if she remains my widow if she marries then all my property both real and personal be sold and be divided as above directed after giving my wife Isabella a child's part. Lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint my beloved wife Isabella Mull my Executor in witness whereof I do in this will set my hand and seal this the 23^d day of September in the year of our Lord 1870.

I do this day subscribe and set my name

J. B. Litteroth

E. St. Distimer

Hand Seal Seal

Proven in open Court by subscribing July 6, 1871

A. J. Cox, Clerk

The last will and testament of Richard Yockley

I Richard Yockley, of the County of Sullivan and State of Tennessee in view of the uncertainty of the present life being of sound mind and memory do this day make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following hereby revoking all former wills by me made that is to say my soul to God who gave it and my body to be buried at the Baptist Church at Muddy Creek in the County and State aforesaid written together with my wife Hannah Yockley next my will is that all our funeral and burial expenses to be paid and all our just debts out of our property after our death.

After my just debts and funeral expenses are paid, to my wife and desire that our beloved son James W. Yockley and our beloved son Benjamin E. Yockley have each five Dollars given to them when the property is sold. I will and bequeath to my beloved daughter Sarah D. wife of James White five Dollars at the time above stated. As to my remaining three daughters viz Margaret W. Mary, Elizabeth W. Yockley, for and in consideration of their services to me and my dear wife their filial care and regard for me, I will and bequeath unto thru all the real remainder or residue of my property of what kind soever both of real estate, as land and stock or movable property to be equally divided between them, which several legacies shall be apportioned to my several heirs above named at the time aforesaid.

Record of Wills in Sullivan County Court

I hereby further appoint as my sole Executor my beloved son Jacob B. Yockley. Given under my hand on the 17th of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty two

Richard Yockley read

The above instrument of one sheet was signed by the testator on the 17th of January eighteen hundred and sixty two in witness whereof we have hereunto affixed our hands and sealed on the day and year aforesaid as attesting witnesses Dr. Joseph McCreary of the County of Sullivan & State of Tennessee to Kate McCreary of the County of Sullivan & State of Tennessee Proven 6th Aug. 1863

State of Tennessee This certifies the foregoing to be a true and perfect copy of the last will and testament of Richard Yockley, as appears from record in my office.

Given under my hand and official seal of office in Blountville this 10th day of Aug. 1863, John L. Rutledge Clerk.

Will of J. Curtains Bleds

In the name of God Amen, I John Curtains of the County of Sullivan and State of Tennessee being in perfect health of body and of sound mind and memory and understanding blessed be God for the same, but considering the uncertainty of this transitory life do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following to wit, Principally and first of all I commend my immortal soul into the hands of God who gave it and my body to the earth to be buried in a decent Christian like manner and as to such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life I give and bequeath of in the following manner.

First It is my desire that my debts and funeral expenses