The Last will & Testament of Jo^s. E. Dulaney dead

I Joseph E. Dulaney, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament making all others, which I may have previously made.

First

I nominate and appoint my wife Lucy A. Dulaney, executrix to carry out the provisions of this my last will, she may however associate with her in the execution of this trust any one whom she may see proper to select, having business experience and a concern in the welfare of my family.

Second

It is my will, and desire that all my just debts be paid, and that all my unsettled business in Sullivan County be set straight up and adjusted as soon as practicable after my decease.

In the County Court Sullivan County Tennessee

Third

It is my desire and will that all my interests in realty in Sullivan County be sold by my Executors. It is my desire that my interest in the widows dower in the old W. R. Dulaney place together with the lots in the town of Blountville on which I now reside which are encumbered in part for the support of the widow and for purchase money, shall be so arranged with Dr. A. T. Dulaney, that he will take same, assuming the obligation thereon standing in my shoes in reference to same and paying to my Executors the fair value of my original share as and his and for improvements made by me on said premises I trust that this arrangement may be effected without difficulty. If it prove impracticable or inexpedient, then it is my will that said interests be disposed of by my Executors on the best terms possible. I desire that my interest in a lot in the town of Bristol which I hold in common with Dr. A. T. Dulaney and Wm. Butler be likewise disposed of giving the other part owners, the privilege of taking said interest, they paying for same what may be considered reasonable. The fund derived from these sales together with that from my personal effects shall become assets in my Executors' hands for the payment of my debts and to be used in support of my wife and children.

Fourth

I will and desire all my lands lying in the State of Texas, being an improved lot in the town of McKinney, Collin County and a farm in said County, a tract of timbered land on Elm Fork or Trinity River in Denton County near Lewisville, a tract of about 110 acres in Wise County, some six miles south of De Catur, a tract of about 260 acres in Young County and an other tract containing some 320 acres in Stephens County to my wife Lucy A. Dulaney for and during her natural life, with so much in fee to my three children, Carringer, Anna Mary, and Joseph Dick, but if it shall become necessary for the support of my family or for the education of the children, or for the improvement of any particular tract or lot of the lands my Executors is authorized to sell any part of said lands, or conveying however that in Collin County for home and support unless necessity should require its sale also. But as to sales and the order in which the several tracts or parcels may be disposed
