

Last Will and Testament of Jonathan Haworth Deed.) Probated January Jonathan Haworth Deed.) Term 1895

In the name of God Amen-

I Jonathan Haworth bring sound in mind but feeble and frail in body and in view of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death do hereby make and publish and declare this to be my last will and testament.

1st I will my soul to God who gave it and consign my body to the ground from which it was taken.

2nd That after my funeral expenses and just debts are all paid I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Louisa Haworth all of my real and personal estate to hold and control during her natural life or so long as she remains my widow and that my two sons J. D. Haworth and J. B. Haworth cultivate the farm to the best advantage furnishing their mother an ample support and if there is any surplus produced the proceeds from same to be equally divided between them.

3rd That after the death of my beloved wife Louisa Haworth it is my will that my two sons J. D. Haworth and J. B. Haworth have the farm equally divided between them the improvements and conveniences all concurred in and that they my executors pay to each of my daughters Mary J. Slaughter Margaret P. Banks and B. S. Haworth the sum of two hundred dollars as soon as they call and that my single daughter B. S. Haworth is to have a house with her mother during her single life and be allowed the same liberties and privileges as she always has had and which she mains to be made equal to the two married daughters.

4th That after the death of my wife it is my will that all the personal property

remaining shall be sold for cash and equally divided between all of us.

And I here by elect and appoint my two sons J. D. Haworth and J. B. Haworth as executors of this my last will and testament.

Whereunto I have on this 7th day of March 1894 subscribed my name. Jonathan Haworth.

Witness.

D. M. Miller.

J. J. Harr.

Proven in open Court by the oaths of D. M.
Miller & J. J. Harr subscribing witness to the forgoing will on this the 7th day of January 1895 and agreed to be recorded in the book of wills
This day 7 1895

John Dain Clerk.

By L. H. Dunn Jr.,

last will & testament

of
Charles L. James Deed.

Probated January term, 1895.

Bristol, July 26th 1894.

The last will and testament of Charles L. James.

I, the said Charles L. James, being in full health, and knowing that all men must die - and believing in God my Saviour, and being of sound mind - Do hereby make this my last will and testament, and do grant & bequeath to my dear wife, Lena James, for her own separate use & benefit during her natural life or widowhood the following real estate, to wit: the house & lot where we now live, situated on Anderson Street, together with all our household & kitchen furniture, and all things pertaining thereto. My house & lot on 9th Street - the house & lot on Gamma & Rose Streets.
And also the legal interest on three thousand dollars in cash, payable to her semiannually, after my death.
All conditioned as stated above, viz: during her, the said Lena James' life time or widowhood, Lena at the expiration thereof said property & effects thereof shall be vested in my daughter Mary J. James as part of my estate.

And I do hereby further give, grant & bequeath to my dear father, W. W. James & Mother Mary J. James, as Trustees, all my remaining property & effects, consisting of other real estate in the State of Virginia or elsewhere, together with all my stocks, bonds, notes, &c. for the purpose of paying all my debts and the support & maintenance of my dear brother, Samuel J. James during his natural life, and should he die before my dear father & Mother or either of them, then the remainder of my effects is to be retained by the said W. W. James & Mary J. James, or the survivors if they reside it, and if not, then to be used by them, or either of them in the erecting of a main central building to be known as the James & Collins College in Bristol Virginia, and said sum so used in said building shall be added to the existing "James Aid Fund", if they desire to do so.

And I the said Charles L. James do hereby appoint my father W. W. James & my Mother Mary J. James, or either of them with the faithful executing of this my last will & testament. No bond is to be required.

Witness my hand & seal this day before written

Witnesses
P. M. Cody
H. H. Hadrill

Charles L. James

I further give to my wife Lena James the interest in one thousand dollars more to be paid the same way as the three thousand previously mentioned provided in my will by the execs of P. M. Cody and H. H. Hadrill, subscribing witness to said last will and testament, on the 29th day of January, 1895, and ordered to be recorded in the book of Wills.
This January 29th 1895.

J. M. Fair. Clerk

By L. H. Denning D.C.

I further give to my wife Lena James the interest in One thousand Dollars more to be paid the same way as the three thousand previously mentioned in this will

Chas. L. James

I also want her to have full authority in disposing of furniture & in any way she may like.

Chas. L. James

The handwriting of the said Chas. L. James in the two last paragraphs for his signatures to the same was proven in open Court by the oaths of W. P. Brooks and H. H. Hadrill on the 29th day of January 1895, and the same adjudged and decided by the Court to be the will of the said Chas. L. James, deceased, and ordered to be recorded in the Book of Wills.

This January 29. 1895.

J. M. Fair. Clerk
By L. H. Denning D.C.

In the name of God Amen

I Samuel D. King being of sound mind, and desiring memory, and knowing that it is accounted to all men faire to die, and after death, the judgment do make, and publish, this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all other wills hereto fore, by me made.

First.

I resign my soul to God who gave it, and my body to the dust from whence it came.

Second

It is my will, and I direct that all my just debts, and funeral expenses, be paid by my executors out of my estate, as soon as practicable after my death.

Third.

I will, and direct that all the money I may have on hand at my death, shall go to my beloved wife Sarah M. King, should she survive me; or as much of it as she may need to make her comfortable, looking to the manner and style in which we have always lived. But I should be the first, then all my money, that I may have on hand at my death, shall