The Last will & Testament of John Cole deceased Ordered to be recorded April 1878 of County Court

Know all men by these presents, that I John Cole of the County of Sullivan and State of Tennessee do make this my last will and testament.
 First that my wife Catherine Cole shall be taken care of and supported during her life time by Elkanah and Francis M. Cole my two youngest sons, and after the death of my wife Catherine Cole it is my will and desire that my land on which I now live containing 55 six acres more or less shall be equally divided between my two youngest sons, Elkanah Cole and Francis M.
 Cole. And further it is my will that my wife shall have and hold for her own use all my personal property and all my stock during her life time and at

The last will of George H. Atherton Ordered to be recorded at Sept term 1869 of County Court.

George H. Atherton of the County of Sullivan and State of Tennessee, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and aware of the uncertainty of life do make publish and declare this to be my last will and testament revoking all former wills by me at any time made.
 First I will and desire that my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon as practicable after my decease and as nearly all my personal property was destroyed during the late unfortunate war I have few resources left except my landed estate, and therefore I direct my executors hereinafter named to sell out or lease my land to the best advantage having due regard to the cultivation and keeping up the same, with the proceeds to be applied as speedily as possible to the payment of my debts, but if it be found that this arrangement cannot be made to answer, then of my children to whom I devise my land, in connection with my executors may make such other arrangements in regard to the same as in their judgment is best to attain that end.

Second I give and devise to Anne B. Sever and her husband David Sever, one hundred acres of land in the Long Island, beginning at the line between my land and the land
