Will of William Thomas.

I William Thomas of Sullivan County and State of Tennessee do make and publish this my last will and Testament hereby revoking and making void all other wills by me at any other time made. First. I desire that all my funeral expenses and all my just debts be paid as soon after my death as possible out of any money that I may die possessed of. Secondly. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Elizabeth P. Thomas all my estate both real and personal of every kind whosoever to be at her entire and sole control during her natural life or while she remains my widow. Thirdly. I desire that if any of the slaves should become unmanageable and not obey my said wife Elizabeth, that she sell them or hire them out as she may think best and apply the proceeds for the benefit of herself and her daughters. Fourthly. I will and desire that at the death or marriage of my said wife all my personal and real property which may be on hand shall be equally divided between my two daughters Mary Mary Salome and Henrietta Thomas to be held by them to their sole and separate use separate and apart from any husband either of them my heirs. Fifthly. I hereby nominate and appoint my beloved wife Elizabeth P. Thomas my Executor and do not require here to give bond or security. In witness whereof I do this my will set my hand and seal this 18th of Feb.

Will of James King Senior.

I James King Senior residing at present in the town of Hudson and State of Virginia do make and publish this my last will and Testament. In the first place I direct that a line be drawn through the lower part of my plantation beginning at a Black oak corner to John C. King and my lands and on the line of William Bear and on the old road leading from Beaver creek down north to Poplarville and near where a few persons have been found running from Thomas N. King that crossing Beaver Creek to the foot of Knob and through the Knobs continuing the same course until it intersects my back line or the line of William B. Evans as the case may be, then the land that I own south and west of the above line and lying down the creek from said line, I give and bequeath to my the grand children—children of my son Cyrus King, to be held and owned by them jointly—and he and as they may think best—either dividing it or selling it and dividing the proceeds to.

James King Senior.

To James Hill one third interest to Alice Owen one third interest and to John C. King one third interest. I must direct that an other line be run, beginning at the corner of John C. King's where it joins a third acre lot that I purchased here some years ago and nearly equidistant between a white oak and black oak that stands some thirty or forty yards apart—running then north 1/2 west passing near a white oak near a large pond crossing Beaver Creek and continuing the same course until it intersects the lower lot which I now hold or have sold off bordering on the main street of Bristol, then all the land lying between the two lines thus described (which include my former residence and my mill) I give and bequeath to my son in law John D. English.

James King Senior.

To my son John & King I give and bequeath that portion of my land lying north and east of the line last described as John & Charles's upper boundary — on the one side, and the town of Bristol on the other side including all lands and lots, whether improved or unimproved that lay on the south side of main street up to the point where the rail road crosses the street. Intending hereby to include all houses as well as lots I may die possessed of on the the part of Bristol lying west of main street, but not crossing the rail road.
 I also give and bequeath to my son John & King a tract of land in the North adjoining the lands of Latham and others, conveyed to me by the heirs of George Burkhead supposed to contain four hundred Acres. — I also give to John & King my hay scales and a three acre lot which I purchased of him lying south and in the rear of what is known as the Hammer house.

James King Senior,

To my son in law Joseph D. Anderson, I give and bequeath that portion of my land lying East of what is known as the Joe or White Oak branch, bounded on one side by said branch then by the line of John & King, then by the lands of Joseph D. Anderson, John & King's Place, place and David Warner, — I give bequeath to Joseph D. Anderson, my wife and child — To my daughter William D. Anderson, I give and bequeath my share in the Virginia and East Tenn. Rail Road, being as I think twenty six acres.

To the Infant son of William P. Brown called James King I bequeath my stock in the Pennington rail road being ten shares,

James King senior

The grand daughter Charlotte Wm's & gave and bequeath all the houses and lots & even in the town of ~~Walden~~ including the house & acre in purchase of Thomas Johnson, the house and lots purchased of J. Hecker and Scott, Edelman, and a small brick house over the creek with the lots attached to it, near the Kentucky and Virginia rail road together with my house hold furniture, and whatever may be found on the lot including my forte piano also my library.

James King junr

To the Children of son James viz William W. Maynard, William and Margaret Elizabeth Buchanan and John Buchanan - I give and bequeath that part of my land bordering on the Town of Bristol and East of the rail road bounded by the town then by the rail road to North St. Bibb's line then with his line and John S. King's line to the sea or white-oak Branch then with said Branch to David Rogers's line then with his line and other to the Town of Bristol - The boundary includes the house in which my son James lives and several others - I also give and bequeath to my four grand children above named,

Children of my son James viz William Hyburn, Moseph Watkins Masgard El Zabeth and John Buchanan my entire stock property the extent of which will be seen by receipts - entries and mortgages covering the same.

James King senior

I direct that all my property not herein specifically devised shall be sold and the proceeds— together with what money I may have on hand and monies collected for debt, due me, my own debts and funeral expenses being first paid shall be disposed of as follows: viz. Five hundred dollars to be paid to my daughter Margaret English— one hundred dollars to my former servant Sadrah— and fifty dollars to my house-widow Amanda.— The balance left after these payments to be divided equally between my grand sons— sons of my daughter Sarah Ann, Albert Picking Father's Son and p. s. s. I George I hereby constitute and appoint my son John P. King and my son in law John P. English my executors— Witness my hand and seal this 16th day of March 1884.
