that subsequently thereto, the said Margaret W. Squire married Thomas K. Leathett Jr. and removed with him to the state of Virginia, taking said slave with her to that state, that sometime thereafter Margaret K. Leathett died leaving the complainant her only child and heir at law, that some time after the death of said Margaret K. the said Thomas K. left etc or sold said slave to one Alexander Findlay, and for the purchase money or a portion thereof took this note which is in the hands, or under the control of the Drff Joseph Davis the Administrator of said Thomas K. Leathett now deceased, that the defendants Thomas K. Leathett and Harry Long, are children of the said Thomas K. Leathett Jr. by a previous marriage who claim an interest in said note, which claim is contested or denied by the complainant.

The Court is further pleased to order and decree that in settling the rights of the parties in regard to said note, the Complainant shall have all the benefits from the said copy of said will that he could or might have had under the said original will had the same not been destroyed.

It is further ordered, and decreed that the Complainant pay the costs of this cause, for which execution may issue.

The last will and Testament of Margaret Cattell

In the name of God Amen. I Margaret H. Cattell wife of Mr. Thomas R. Cattell of Washington County Virginia do hereby on this the 16th day of June A.D. 1854 publish and declare this my last will and testament so far as I may lawfully make a will.

Wills Admitted to record in Sullivan County Court

I the - Whereas my former Husband James Lyon did leave to me during my natural life and for me to dispose of as I might please at my death a tract of land of about 109 acres situated in Sullivan County Tennessee adjoining lights of the Heirs of Thomas Littleworth, the Heirs of John Lyman Jr. (was) formerly owned by Faeth my grandfather and formerly owned by Phillip Littleworth, therefore know all you, that I do hereby give and devise the said tract of land with all the privileges and appurtenances therunto belonging to my son Samuel Dalton Cattell, to him and his heirs forever.

I the - And whereas my former Husband James Lyon did bequeath to me to have the income thereof during my natural life a sum of money which he supposed would amount to Twenty five hundred dollars to come from the estate of his father, and whereas but a small portion to this sum was ever received by me, therefore it is my will that if the sum of least Seven dollars to which this money was to pass after his death, shall demand it, on accurate examination of the account, and vouchers be made, and whatever sum may have received under the aforesaid provision of my former Husband will be paid over to the said Presbytarian Synod of East Tennessee.

I the - It is my will (and I trust this item also will be religiously observed) that all notes and other dues to me for rent, and all other notes and dues to me and all my personal effects of every description whatsoever descending to my son Samuel Dalton Cattell, and to him I do hereby give and bequeath them.

I the - It is my will that my sister Sarah Rockhold have the service of my servant Sally, if Sally who is now sick gets well and that she the said Sarah Rockhold have the care and raising of my son Samuel Dalton Cattell as she consents thereto.

It is my will that my son Samuel Dalton Cattell shall die before he becomes of age that all the property of my descent herein hereby bequeathed to him be given to
