

have had I think this necessary to give him an education and make him equal Third after the above special bequest the remainder of what I then own and possessed to be equally divided between my three children W. S. Brown, John P. Brown and A. J. Brown said division to be made to be made whenever the guardian executor and heirs may think best. It being my desire that the family remain together here on the homestead as long as may be practicable and my son W. S. Brown being the eldest consequently most of the labor will devolve upon him, and I desire that he be recompensed for said labor out of the surplus that may be made on the farm the balance of said surplus to be equally divided between my three children as above named also it is my desire that Mr. J. H. Seely, who has been with us for several years remain in the family as long as it may be considered right and proper by the guardian executor and heirs, and that she have $250.00 yearly five dollars extra of her wages for each year that she may remain in the family. And furthermore it is my heartfelt desire that each one strive to live as they should, in order that their work through this life may be as pleasant and profitable as possible and that their end may be peace.

Lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint W. S. Brown my executor, (also would recommend him as a suitable guardian)

In witness whereof I date this my will at my hand and seal this the 10th day of April 1881

Attest
 John R. Lewisford
 David M. Miller
 John R. Anderson

Proven in open Court by oaths of John R. Lewisford, David M. Miller and John R. Anderson and ordered to be recorded February 5, 1881 in open Court

Det. A. J. Lee, Clerk

The last will of Mary M. Gregg admitted to probate County Court Dec. 2nd term 1881

I Mary M. Gregg being in feeble health, but in possession of my natural mind, make and publish this my last will and testament

I first give and bequeath to Andrew J. Thompson all my land upon which I now reside, Conditional that he pay to Rev. Rutledge King thirty dollars, in three installments of ten dollars for the first three years after my decease, the said King to determine to what benevolent purpose it shall be applied. I also give to the said Thompson my cow, calf, my hogs and sheep. Conditional that the said A. J. Thompson give me an ample support in all necessities during my life, and a decent burial.

Second, I hereby release to my sister in law Mary Gregg widow of James Gregg died a claim of sixty dollars with the interest on the same, which I held on the estate of my brother James I have appointed James White as my executor

In testimony of which I here affix my name and seal this 27th day of April 1881

Attest

William Gregg

Robert McKanney

Proven by Robert McKanney, in open Court (Subscribing witness) Dec. 6, 1881 Det. A. J. Lee, Clerk

Proven in open Court by oath of Wm. Gregg subscribing witness & ordered to be recorded Dec. 7/81 Det. A. J. Lee, Clerk

The last will of Andrew J. Millhorn admitted to probate County Court April term 1882

To all whom it may concern Be it known that I Andrew Jackson Millhorn of Sullivan County State of Tenn. being of sound mind but on account of the feeble condition of my health, realizing the solemn fact that I cannot remain a very great while in this world to direct and control the business affairs