Will of David McCallum deceased
In the name of God Amen

I David McCallum being of sound mind, but feeble in health and recollecting that it is appointed for man to die, do make and publish this my last and Testament revoking all former wills to wit I bequeath my soul to God who gave it and my body to be decently buried and my burial expenses to be paid out of the first money which come into the hands of my Executrix.

I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Elizabeth my dwelling house and barns including all the land lying north of the Mail Road and east of water west of my barn and all the land lying south of the plan of mine, about one-half mile from the road, so it now runs, alway my household & kitchen furniture my negro boy my four horses, four head of work horses or mules with grazing complete three with cows, a sufficient number of stock traps with grain and provender and all necessary farming utensils, to have and to hold during her natural life and at her decease to descend to my five youngest children to wit Abraham, Edward A., Rachel A., Nancy & Margaret A.

I will bequeath the entire remainder of my estate both real and personal that I may die possessed of or may be entitled to any way whatever to my said children Abraham, Edward A., Rachel A., Nancy & Margaret A. Now, I will that my executors sell all the unsoiled lots and all the land not specified above, belonging to my Wayne tract, wishing also that my wife Elizabeth, if she should find it advisable to join in with my sons and dispose of her share also that the whole tract may be sold together, or in part, as may be most advantageous, they will also dispose of all the surplus property of every description found on the places, and from the proceeds discharge all my just debts, & hereby empower my executors to dispose of all land & may be possessed of or justly entitled to provide they may be advisable, and after paying all my debts to purchase other land & keep the money at interest until these five children arive at lawful age, it shall be their duty to do so.

I also empower my executors to make title to any lands or lots of my have sold when contracts are concluded with -

It is my ardent desire that my executors attend particularly to the Education of my children and give, if not a liberal education at least such as my estate may justify.

I further will that of either of those give children whom I have named above as my heirs should die having no heirs, that that share shall be equally divided amongst the four survivors or their legal heirs.

I here by constitute and appoint my three brothers William George H. & A. L. McCallum my executors to execute & carry into effect this my last will & Testament.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand & seal This 5th day of July 1858.
