Last Will & Testament of
D. M. McGay, Decd. { Probated February Term 1897.

Note of Unimpaired } I, D. M. McGay of sound and disposing Sullivan County } mind, yet feeble in body, do hereby make this my last will and testament, and my first and chief desire is, that I give my body to the debt from whence it came, and my spirit to my Heavenly Father, whom I devoutly love & obey, and after my debts and funeral expenses are fully met, It is my will and desire that my beloved wife Nancy A. McGay have full control of the entire Estate of Dolly Dunning her maternal life, or so long as she may remain my widow, and at her death and after her funeral expenses have been fully met it is my wish and last will that the home farm where I now reside may be equally divided between my two sons George H. & John W. McGay, they being required to pay all my just debts, due and owing by
