

Dolly Ann must be returned.
I will to my son Jackson my lock line and locks thereto belonging.

Be it understood that my reason for so disposing of my property in the foregoing manner is to as far as lies in my power compensate my daughter and grand daughter for their great kindness to their grand mother in her last days also to myself here tofore as well as as at present time.

The sewing machine is the property of Adaline but to be used for the benefit of the family, as long as the two lines may live together, which I desire and admonish them to live in peace as a family should, which is my dying request.
