The Last will of David L. Cross Decd. ordered to be recorded February term 1879

Knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death being free in body, eye of sound and disposing mind I propose to arrange my worldly affairs and therefore make this instrument as my last will & testament. The land on which I now live being deficient, I propose to give to my daughter Polly and Amanda my personal property as follows - jointly and equally, I devise to them my farm wagon, Plows, Gearing, Cutting Box, Cook Store, and all Cocks and vessels & fixtures, also all wash vessels. I devise to them all the household furniture and fixtures that I have an interest in part of which I consider already belongs to them. The hogs on hand I consider belongs to them also the cattle on hand I consider their own property. But whatever interest I may have if any I set over to them.

All the farming tools of every description including the windmill I devise to them. I have at the shop of Mr. James Watkins a wagon to iron which I want ironed & sold or retained on the farm and the one now in use sold and applied to the payment of my just debts. This I leave at the option of the two girls named above.

The landed interest I owned in Anderson County I devise to my son Elijah, who now resides in my said County. But should the Statute of limitation pass such interest out of my hands then I hereby confirm his interest therein. Should my title still be adjudged legal to said land interests then I devise all my right title, interest &c &c forever to the said Elijah.
