The Last will } admitted a probate Court
Andrew Shull died } August term 1880
State of Tennessee, Sullivan County
By the name of God Amen. I, Andrew Shull of the above named State & County, do hereby publish and declare this to be my last will & testament while in health & in my right mind as stated by myself written with my own hand.
Having given to my daughters their portion of my personal property except at Shull she is to have fifty dollars in cash & stock to make her equal to the other girls her sisters. The farm is to be divided as follows beginning at a dogwood corner in a hollow on the line of the land I got of Dennis Miller thence a south course to a white oak marked 3 hawks thence S. W. to a white oak with 3 hawks thence S. E. course along the direction of a middle fence to the h. h. thence about 1/2 pole to a creek on side of R. Cut, thence to the Amos Hollow up the hollow to top of the ridge & then down to a point hollow to the line between me & A. Shull. Now all the land on the N. E. of the above described line is to be the share of A. M. Shull and all the land on the S. W. of the above described line is to be the share of Mrs. Shull on the following conditions viz. he is to take care of A. M. Shull's daughter Mary Jane & educate her as his own children and when she comes of age he is to pay her five hundred dollars & Clark & Jane are to have their homes here in the old homestead.

Now Clark is to have a place to build a house to do business in if he ever gets well enough say one acre. If Mary Jane should die in her minority & Clark her father is dead then the $500 dollars is to be divided as follows at the time she would be of age
To Andrew something one hundred dollars to Ellen Wolf one hundred dollars
To Victory Hughes one hundred dollars
To Marion's daughter Minny $10.00
To A. M. Shull one hundred dollars
All the farming utensils are to belong to Mrs. Marion. Mrs. is to have Clark's portion of stock. I am to have my support off of the farm I have thus divided as long as I live. The Reaper & threshing machine to be disposed of as Mrs. & Marion think best.
Mrs. is to take Clark's place in all things after things not expressed or named is to be disposed of between Mrs. Marion as originally arranged between Marion & Clark. So as to have no residue or sale after my demise. In testimony of the above will I hereunto set my hand & affix my seal this the 2nd day of June 1877
