Admitted to Probate Court August term 1880
State of Minnesota, Sullivan County
By the grace of God Amen. I, Andrew Shull of the County and State of Minnesota, do hereby publish and declare this to be my last will & testament while in health & in my right mind & stated by myself written with my own hand.
I have given to my daughters their portions of my personal property except that I shall she is to have fifty dollars in cash stock to make her equal to the other girls her sisters The farm is to be divided as follows beginning at a dogwood corner in a hollow on the line of the land I got of Dennis I take three a south course to a white oak marked 3 hacks thence S. W. to a white oak with 3 hacks thence S. E. course along the direction of a middle fence to the R. R. thence about 1/2 pole to a creek on side of R. R. Cut thence to the Ames Hollow & up the hollow to top of the ridge & thence down to a point hollow to the line between me & A. Shull, & run all the land on the N. E. of the above described line is to be the share of S. M. Shull and all the land on the S. W. of the above described line is to be the share of W. M. Shull on the following conditions viz he is to take care of S. M. Shull's daughter Mary Jane & educate her as his own children and when she comes of age he is to pay her five hundred dollars & Clark & Jane are to have their homes here in the old homestead

Now Clark is to have a place to build a house to do business in if he ever gets well enough pay one acre of Mary Jane should die in her minority & Clark & his father is dead then the $100 dollars is to be divided as follows at the time she would be of age
To Andrew Smalley one hundred dollars
To Allen Wolf one hundred dollars
To Victory Hughes one hundred dollars
To Marion Daugherty twenty $100
To S. M. Shull one hundred dollars
All the farming utensils are to belong to Wm. Marion Wm is to have Clark's portion of stock I am to have my support off of the farm I have thus divided as long as I live The Reaper & threshing machine to be disposed of as Wm & Marion think best
Wm is to take Clark's place in all things & all things not expressed or named is to be disposed of between Wm & Marion as originally arranged between Marion & Clark so as to have no feud or battle after my demise in testimony of the above will I hereunto set my hand & affix my seal this the 2nd day of June 1877
